Entry was made by knocking a hole in the concrete block store wall on the southwest side. Bureau of Criminal Investigation agents were assisting police in the investigation.

Katharine Cornell, stage star, dies

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass. (AP) — For decades, audiences applauded the dazzling performances of Katharine Cornell. "Romeo and Juliet" and "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" were among her triumphs.

The American National Theater and Academy recently cited her "incomparable acting ability and her theatrical genius" and said she had "elevated the theater throughout the world."

Miss Cornell became ill May 29 at her town house in New York City and was flown to Martha's Vineyard at her request. On Sunday, the actress who had brought so much excitement to the theater died of pneumonia at her home here. She was 81. Her body will be cremated in Boston on Tuesday and a memorial service will be held next week in Vineyard Haven's town hall.

Miss Cornell was born Feb. 16, 1893 in Germany. She was raised in Buffalo, N.Y., and made her first professional appearance there in 1918 as a member of a stock company.

She married Guthrie McClintic, who directed all of her plays but one. With her portrayal of Iris Marsh in Michael Arlen's "The Green Hat" in 1925, Miss Cornell became a star.

In 1931 when she formed her own production company.

General Assembly seeks to wrap up major legislation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 110th General Assembly is to convene Tuesday in what leaders hope will be a two-day session to wrap up major legislation—primarily Gov. John J. Gilligan's $43.5 million supplemental appropriations measure.

House Speaker A.G. Lancione, D-99 Bellaire, said he doesn't expect many other major pieces of legislation to make it through by Wednesday.

"That doesn't mean they are dead," Lancione said. "We'll keep everything alive through December when we adjourn sine die (final)."

Gilligan's supplemental appropriations measure will have to be ironed out as compromise between Democrats who control the House and Republicans who are in charge in the Senate.

The Senate Finance Committee added some $40 million in tax relief to the measure, making it as it now stands an $83 million spending proposal.

Gilligan said the bill as it came out of the House was based on revenues from the state lottery the next fiscal year. The Republican additions are based on a predicted surplus which Gilligan contends does not exist.

Both houses of the legislature are to meet in floor session at 11 a.m. Tuesday. The Senate Finance Committee also meets Tuesday to hear Democratic amendments to its version of supplemental appropriations.

Other bills caught in the time deadline include a measure defining landlord-tenant legal relationships, a bill to provide additional low income housing and another for nofault insurance.

Yet another measure, one defining obscenity, failed to make it out of the House Rules Committee by one vote last week, and its prime sponsor, Rep. Donna Pope, R-12 Parma, thinks it is dead for this year.

"We'll do everything possible to move it," said Mrs. Pope, "but I see no way we can get through the House floor, a Senate committee and a Senate floor vote this time around."

She held out hopes, however, that if there is enough pressure it could come up later in the year.

After adjournment, both houses plan at least once a month skeleton sessions to keep things alive. Lancione said any pending bill—plus a reaction to any gubernatorial vetoes—could be acted upon at those times.

Final adjournment is tentatively set for Dec. 10, but Lancione and other legislative leaders agree that the session for all practical purposes will be over when the legislature adjourns this week.

Jr. that he will do nothing which would "render the executive branch henceforth and forevermore subservient to the legislative branch."

Nixon's six-page letter to Rodino was in response to the Judiciary Committee's subpoena for tapes of 45 conversations related to the Watergate scandal. The letter was released by the White House.

The committee voted 37 to 1 on May 29 to subpoena the tapes, even though Nixon had already refused to comply with an earlier subpoena from the committee and had said he would reject any further subpoenas for material related to Watergate.

Nixon declared again today that "the voluminous body of materials that the committee already has ... does give the full story of Watergate insofar as it relates to presidential knowledge and presidential decisions."

Nixon said that "if the institution of an impeachment inquiry against the President were permitted to override all restraints of separation of powers, this would spell the end of the doctrine of separation of power; it would be an open invitation to future Congresses to use an impeachment inquiry, however frivolously as a device to assert their own supremacy over the executive, and to reduce executive confidentiality to a nullity."

U. S. District Judge John J. Sirica was to begin hearing pretrial motions today for seven men accused in the Watergate cover-up case, including motions for a change of venue. One defendant is former White House aide Charles W. Colson, who pleaded guilty last week to obstruction of justice in the burglary of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist's office.

And the Supreme Court could decide today whether to release a grand jury report that names Nixon an indicted co-conspirator in connection with the cover-up.

In still another federal courtroom, U.S. District Judge Gerhard Gesell was expected to decide this week, possibly today, what to do about Nixon's refusal to allow John D. Ehrlichman and his lawyers total access to certain White House files in the plumbers case.

The Judiciary Committee subpoena is its fourth sent to Nixon. It got edited transcripts instead of tapes in response to the first one, and nothing for the next two, which called for more tapes and some White House logs.

The committee has sent Nixon a letter saying his refusal to comply with its subpoenas was a grave matter that might be grounds in itself for impeachment.

Nixon was scheduled to leave for a visit to the Middle East a few hours before the subpoena was due. His lawyer, James D. St. Clair, said he would be in daily communication with the President during his absence.

The committee may issue another subpoena at its next business meeting, possibly Thursday, for taped conversations relating to the settlement of an International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. antitrust suit, and to a 1971 increase in milk price supports. The committee asked for 66 tapes but got only one partial transcript.

The committee also is ready to subpoena an Internal Revenue Service audit of Nixon's income taxes and supporting data that St. Clair said more than a week ago he would provide but hasn't.

Presentation of evidence gathered by the impeachment inquiry staff continues Tuesday with examination of the Ellsberg break-in by the special White House investigating unit known as the plumbers.

The committee's evidentiary hearings are expected to conclude June 19 or 20. Still to be presented is evidence bearing on use of federal agencies for partisan political purposes, Nixon's personal finances and the firing of special prosecutor Archibald Cox.

Critics call journey unnecessary

Nixon opens Mideast trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon flew off today on the first leg of a journey that will take him to five Middle East nations during the next week.

Nixon left the United States with the twin goals of strengthening the new U.S. role in the Middle East and convincing the American people that world peace requires his continuation in office.

After spending some time in Austria to adjust to the time zone changes, Nixon arrives in Egypt Wednesday for the first stop in what is expected to be a warmly welcomed tour of five Middle East nations.

Diplomats in the Middle East and Washington and many American officials see the trip as official confirmation that the United States is a friend of the Arabs—particularly true for Egypt and Syria, two nations that had been entirely dependent on the Soviet Union for military and political support.

Nixon's visits therefore are expected to give a further push to Moscow's declining influence in the Middle East.

While White House and State Department officials deny publicly any connection between the trip and Nixon's Watergate troubles, the President drew one Sunday between his continuation in office and the progress of his foreign policy.

While a luncheon audience of 1,400 members of the National Committee for Fairness to the Presidency cheered and chanted, Nixon counted up his diplomatic triumphs—friendship with mainland China, detente with Moscow.

But "there remains much to be done," he continued. And, he said at another point, "A strong American President is essential if we are to have peace in the world."

He said he will stay President through his term.

After Egypt, Nixon goes to Saudi

Arabia, Syria, Israel and Jordan. He returns June 19.

There was some criticism of the trip from congressional sources.

In East Lansing, Mich., Sen. Edward

Brooke, R-Mass., said the trip would serve no useful purpose and that it was "patently political." Nixon's effectiveness "has been impaired by Watergate," Brooks said.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said the trip did not make sense since "Dr. (Henry A.) Kissinger spent a little over a month in that area. He's just (Please turn to page 2)

Mexico now major source for heroin

WASHINGTON (AP) — After two years of decline, heroin traffic into the United States is reported on the upswing, with Mexico replacing Europe as the primary source and conduit for the narcotic.

Federal drug enforcement officials say the heroin is refined from poppy plants grown in western Mexico, then shipped into the U.S.

At the same time, there is growing trade in marijuana from long-established sources in Mexico, leading to an intensified antismuggling campaign along the 1,400-mile border.

But some officials acknowledge that U.S. government efforts to cope with the illicit activity have been partially impeded by bureaucratic wrangling among agencies with jurisdiction over certain aspects of narcotics control.

The Customs Service, which has concentrated its own border drug interdiction efforts chiefly against the Mexican marijuana trade, contends that heroin traffic from there is negligible. Although heroin remains priority No. 1 because of the danger it poses, customs officials said synthetic drugs are their biggest worry.

However, the Drug Enforcement Administration, a yearold Justice Department agency with which Customs has clashed frequently over enforcement policy, says Mexico has become the source of as much as 50 per cent of the heroin reaching the United States.

During the peak years of heroin traffic, 1969-72, up to 80 per cent of the narcotic reaching U.S. shores came from or through Europe. Only about 15 per cent from Mexico.

Mexican heroin is easily identified by its brown color; the more refined product from European laboratories is white. But officials say there is no difference in the potency.

John R. Bartels Jr., director of the drug agency, said brown heroin, once confined mostly to the West Coast, recently has been turning up in eastern cities—one indicator used to determine source.

He says he is skeptical of most drug statistics reported by government agencies and admits he is "not happy" even with the figures compiled by his own. The heroin situation is assessed by such indicators as seizures, quality of the drug, street prices and the number of deaths from overdose.

The Customs Service, deprived of some of its functions when the drug agency was created in President Nixon's general overhaul of drug enforcement system a year ago, has doubled the number of individual marijuana seizures from Mexico in the past 10 months. Agents seized more than 85 tons of marijuana between October and March and 25 tons in the March-April period alone when the Mexican harvest was in full swing, official reports show.

In that time, Customs agents seized 8.33 pounds of heroin at all U.S. borders; 5.83 pounds came from Mexico.

The shift to Mexico as a major heroin source is due in part to the success of federal authorities in breaking up established connections from Europe, the Middle East and Asia, officials say.

Bartels says that while the international heroin traffic always has been controlled by the Mafia, the Mexican connection only now is showing signs that "these guys are now starting to get organized," he said.

SPOT LANDING CHAMP — Millard French, of South Solon, is shown receiving the first place trophy from Mrs. John Woodmansee. He won the spot landing competition by beating Mr. Woodmansee, at left, after the two had tied on their first attempt. Jack Sanders, Fayette County Pilots Association President, was the master of ceremonies as the association hosted its annual Fly-In Sunday.

Over 100 spectators attend fly-in event

More than 100 spectators turned out at the Fayette County Airport Sunday when some 25 pilots arrived for the annual Fly-In.

Trophies were awarded to the winners of competitive events as well as for the youngest, oldest and farthest-flying pilots. Mrs. John Woodmansee awarded the trophies while Jack Sanders, pilots association president, served as master of ceremonies.

The airport was under the jurisdiction of the Fayette County Pilots Association for the day, thus relieving the county of all responsibility during the event. Attorney Otis Hess negotiated the legal aspects of the transfer.

Sandwiches and food were provided for the spectators, and the proceeds will be placed in the Pilots Association Airport Improvement Fund.

THE COMPETITIVE events were spot-landing and bomb-dropping. The spot-landing event was won by Millard French, of South Solon, after he won a tie-breaking match with John Woodmansee, airport manager. Hess finished third, just three feet further from the target landing stripe than French or Woodmansee.

Norman Merritt and James Patton combined to place first in the bomb-dropping competition. Second was the team of Hess and Paul Wisecup, of Chillicothe.

Carl Giles, 21, of Columbus, was the youngest pilot in attendance. The oldest pilot arriving here was Leon Ostrander, 58, of Circleville.

There was a tie for the pilot who had flown the greatest distance to attend. A number of the pilots had flown from the Brown County Airport, located on the Ohio River.

A number of community organizations assisted in the fly-in activities. The Civil Air Patrol directed cars to the parking areas; the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home provided chairs; the Fayette County Fair Board donated tables, and Boylan and Cannon Electronics provided the public address system.

The U.S. Air Force provided two jets which passed over the field about 10:15 a.m. The jets made one slow pass so that the planes could be viewed by the audience and then made another pass with the jets at full throttle.

National Health plan delay seen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's little chance Congress will approve a national health insurance plan this year, the president of the American Osteopathic Association said here today.

Dr. John C. Taylor of Kansas City told a meeting of the Ohio Osteopathic Association said there are just too many proposals before Congress, each of which must be examined carefully, to make a choice likely this year.

Soviets send faster jets to Syrians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union apparently has given Syria its first squadron of advanced MIG23 jet fighters, according to U.S. intelligence reports.

Sources said 16 crated MIG23 "Floggers" reportedly were sent to Syria recently aboard Russian merchant ships.

Intelligence has been watching for these deliveries since early last month when MIG23 crates were seen at Nikolayev, a Black Sea port from which Russia ships most military equipment to Arab countries.

The swing-wing MIG23, whose top speed is nearly 2,000 miles an hour, is rated significantly better than the older MIG21, which until now has been the best Russian fighter exported.

U.S. analysts said the MIG23 does have some weaknesses, particularly in its combat operating range.

They said one squadron will not influence the relative air power balance with Israel. But they believe the appearance of Syrian MIG23s in sizable numbers could cause serious problems for the Israeli Air Force, if war flares again.

The first shipment of MIG23s to Syria could mark the beginning of a broader export of that plane, which before this has been limited to the Soviet Air Force.

Soviet officials are reported to have tried to sell MIG23s to an Indian defense delegation that visited Moscow recently.

The Flogger, a tactical fighter that can be used as an interceptor and to attack ground targets, has been in production for five years and has been altered in design because of technical problems, intelligence specialists said. About 500 MIG23s have been manufactured so far.

Meanwhile, U.S. intelligence disputed published reports out of Cairo that Russia has resumed shipments of arms and other military equipment to Egypt.

Tornadoes, floods kill 23 persons

By The Associated Press

Officials estimate that weekend tornadoes and floods that caused 23 deaths and left hundreds injured in three states caused damage of about $55 million.

Oklahoma and Kansas officials are seeking a presidential declaration of disaster for areas hit by tornadoes in their states.

Oklahoma Gov. David Hall tentatively estimated damage at $26 million. Damages in Kansas were estimated by officials to exceed $20 million.

Sen. Dewey F. Bartlett, R-Okl., said the White House staff told him President Nixon would try to have the back. And now he's going back again with the President.

Jackson said the trip "will be more cosmetic and ceremonial than it will be substance," and, "It's poor judgment on the part of the President to be out of the country while the House Judiciary Committee moves into a serious phase of the charges against him in its impeachment inquiry."

Mrs. Nixon, Kissinger and White House aides Alexander M. Haig Jr. and Ronald L. Ziegler will accompany the President.

Kissinger will conduct some extra business, splitting off from the presidential party Tuesday to meet with new West German Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher.

He also will attend a meeting of North Atlantic Treaty Organization foreign ministers in Canada June 18-19.

Little is expected from the President's Middle East tour in the way of tangible agreements, although there are strong signs he may announce resumption of full relations with Syria while in Damascus.

Without putting a date on it, Syrian President Hafez Assad said Sunday such a restoration "is what is required in the interest of both countries." Syria broke relations during the 1967 Arab-Israeli war.

Nixon is trying to recover from that low point in Arab-U.S. relations.

The tour will be "a difficult trip from the standpoint of diplomacy," Nixon declared, adding that he nevertheless will try to convince Arab and Israeli leaders that the U.S. objective is "one of assurance for every nation in the area . . . of the right to independence, the right to security, the right to seek their own way, to achieve their own goals."

Meanwhile, Sen. James R. Buckley Cons.-R-N.Y., criticized the trip Nixon will take to Moscow later this month.

He said in a radio interview that Watergate has created a domestic situation that would make that trip a "mission in futility."

paperwork completed today for federal assistance.

In Arkansas, weekend flooding was responsible for four deaths and an estimated $9 million in damages, authorities said.

Late Sunday night a tornado hit a dormitory at Ferris State College in Big Rapids, Mich., causing some damage and one minor injury.

The twister, one of several which passed through the north central part of the Lower Peninsula, also blew away about 70 per cent of the roof at Riverview Elementary School.

The National Weather Service said the tornadoes that struck Saturday were part of a storm system almost as powerful as the one that struck the Midwest on April 3 and killed some 300 persons.

Thirteen persons were killed in Oklahoma and six in Kansas on Saturday, officials reported.

About 250 persons were injured when twisters struck 13 towns and cities in Oklahoma. In Tulsa, about 1,300 structures were destroyed or damaged by as many as four tornadoes.

Nearly one-fourth of Tulsa's 330,000 residents were without electricity Sunday night. Public Service Co. crews in Tulsa had to rebuild some high-voltage distribution systems, a PSC spokesman said.

In Emporia, Kan., a tornado described by witnesses as a mile wide left six persons dead and destroyed 150 homes and apartments, a shopping center and 100 mobile homes. The town's two hospitals treated nearly 200 persons.

In Drumwright, Okla., where five persons were killed, Saturday's tornado was an 18-year-old rerun. Five persons were killed and 70 homes and buildings were destroyed in the Western Creek County town of about 3,000 on April 3, 1956.

The chairman of the Senate Watergate Committee says President Nixon can defy the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment probe only by claiming protection under the Fifth Amendment.

U.S. Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C., made the comment in a news conference Sunday before addressing graduates of the University of Cincinnati.

Other commencement speakers in Ohio Sunday included U.S. Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, humor columnist Art Buchwald, Mrs. Shirley Temple Black and astronaut Alan L. Bean.

In his news conference Sunday, Ervin said that if President Nixon "refuses to surrender to the House Judiciary Committee information in his possession, he would, in my opinion, be committing an impeachable offense."

"I say the President should have turned over all tapes and documents unless he was willing to plead the Fifth Amendment (against self-incrimination) which, under the U.S. Constitution, he has a perfect right to do," Ervin said.

"The President could have spared this nation the agony of Watergate if he had acted with the forthrightness his office calls for," the senator said.

At commencement ceremonies at Urbana College, Saxbe told graduates that, "If we want better days, it all comes down in the final analysis to a matter of individual responsibility and morality."

Saxbe said the implications of Watergate "touch each of us. Each man and woman, at some point in their lives, will come face-to-face with their own personal Watergate."

Miranda ruling limited by court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that the failure of police to inform a defendant of his full legal rights does not bar the use of all evidence obtained from him.

The court, in an 8-to-1 ruling, reversed a lower court decision overturning the rape conviction of a Michigan man who was not told during police interrogation that he had a right to legal counsel.

The decision limits the scope of the landmark Miranda decision requiring that criminal defendants be fully advised of their legal rights.

Stock list turns quiet

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was quiet and little changed today, pausing for a breather after last week's rapid runup.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 1.80 at 851.92, while gainers held a narrow lead over losers on the New York Stock Exchange.

Analysts said it appeared many investors were waiting to see whether the declines in the prime lending rate posted by several banks last week would lead to further decreases in the key short-term rate on loans to big businesses.

They also noted some profit taking by traders after the advance that pushed the Dow to a dramatic 51.55-point gain last week.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index lost .06 to 85.72. Airwick Industries was the Amex volume leader, down 1/4 at 12 1/2.

The NYSE's noon composite index of all its listed common stocks was down .11 at 48.60.

Rain hampers road, street work crews

The gamut of rain in Fayette County during the past week has delayed the work of area street and road crews. In part, they will be attempting to complete work which was scheduled last week.

State crews will have eight mowers in operation, including a huge wind rower on I-71. Crack sealing will be done on U.S. 35-S and Ohio 734-E. Ditch work is scheduled for parts of the CCC Highway-E, and berm work will be done throughout the county. In addition, trash crews will be operating, and state rest areas will be sprayed.

According to Bill Duncan, general foreman of the city street department, state crews will be re-grading alleys throughout the city. They will also continue routine mowing, painting and patching.

Charles P. Wagner, county engineer, will concentrate on drainage ditch projects on Johnson, Dennis, Greenfield - Sabina and Miami Trace roads. County crews will be mowing weeds around guardrails and bridges.

3 WCH youths arrested for bottle theft

One 17-year-old and three 16-year-old Washington C.H. youths have been arrested by Sheriff's Deputy Donald L. Cox for the theft of several cases of pop bottles from the Stephenson Market, U.S. 22-E.

The juveniles were released to their parents pending a hearing in Juvenile Court.

Mrs. Betty Harris, 18, Allen Rd., has been arrested by Sheriff's deputies on a private warrant filed by Deborah Wiget, 21, of Sabina.

According to Ms. Wiget, she and Mrs. Harris were talking in front of the Harris residence when an argument erupted. She said that Mrs. Harris yanked her out of her car and began beating her. She was allegedly kicked in the ribs, resulting in a broken rib. The incident occurred at 3:30 a.m. Saturday, and Mrs. Harris was arrested that afternoon.

Fireworks ban delay sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three trade organizations representing U.S. and Chinese fireworks manufacturers said today they will seek a delay in the proposed federal ban on firecrackers now due to go into effect June 17.

The announcement was made by Fred McAlpin, Washington attorney representing the Taiwan Fireworks Manufacturers Association, Macao Fireworks Manufacturers Association and Oklahoma Pyrotechnic Association.

Security heavy for Nixon trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — As President Nixon jets across the Atlantic today, U.S. Secret Service agents and host country security men are being deployed in unprecedented numbers throughout the Middle East.

According to several sources, never have so many men—upwards of 10,000—been assigned to protect a President.

Publicly, officials in Washington and the Middle East disclaim excessive concern for Nixon's safety.

"Security does not worry us," said Syria's protocol director, Khali Saadawi.

"Security as always will be dealt with," said White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler.

But privately, some security officials express deep concern about the President's safety in a region scarred by violence and terrorist attacks for a quarter-century. The extensive security preparations underscore their concern.

The Secret Service has called agents from field offices across the country to beef up the agency's White House detail, a spokesman said. He would not discuss numbers, but it is believed that more than 100 agents—perhaps as many as 250—are involved in guarding the President during his trip.

But the size of the U.S. security team is dwarfed by host country forces. In Syria, for example, about 2,000 plainclothesmen were deployed for security during Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's repeated trips to Damascus in troop disengagement negotiations.

Syrian officials acknowledge that this force will be more than doubled for President Nixon," by 3,000 crack paratroopers.

Jordan's King Hussein has been the target of past assassination attempts, and there will be "tightening everywhere" for Nixon's visit, according to one unofficial source.

The head of the White House Secret Service detail, Dick Kaiser, has been in the Middle East for a week, conferring with the host countries in arranging security.

The time frame for security planning is much shorter than on previous presidential trips overseas. Usually, advance teams are sent out two to three weeks ahead. On this trip, they went one week ahead.

Nixon's bulletproof limousines are being flown to the Middle East. Helicopters from the presidential fleet also are heading there aboard giant cargo planes.

Agents talk privately of the risks involved in Nixon or Kissinger mingling in crowds.

They also worry about security in the moments immediately after the presidential jetliner takes off, since some terrorist groups are said to possess small, heat-seeking missiles capable of bringing down a lowflying aircraft.

Agents are being assigned around-the-clock to guard presidential aircraft and the luggage of the President's party.

Special precautions also are being applied to newsmen traveling with the chief executive in a pair of chartered jetliners, and their luggage.

Dam repair method set

WOLFE CREEK DAM, Ky. (AP) — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has made a decision on the method of repairing the Wolfe Creek Dam, a 24 year-old concrete and earthen dam that created Lake Cumberland.

The work to stop leaks in the foundation will take nearly five years and will cost an estimated $64 million.

The corps says the remedy will be to pour a massive two-foot-thick curtain of concrete into at least half of the earthen portion, according to E.C. Moore, chief of the engineering division of the corps' Nashville District.

The cost could jump to more than the original $80 million spent to build it, depending upon whether or not further investigation reveals the curtain of concrete should be extended further.

Agnew vs. World Book

The view that every man must do what he can to defend his good name may strike some as applying to Spiro T. Agnew's complaints about the World Book story of his fall from grace. The point would not be well taken. The former vice president does not just now have a good name to defend. He will be unable to redeem himself in the eyes of his countrymen for a long time, if ever. Agnew would nevertheless be entitled to object were the account of his resignation distorted and unfair, as he claims. Judging by quotations this does not appear to be the case. He would have been better advised to take the World Book account in stride.

THESE DAYS . . . by John Chamberlain

Will Kissinger or Fonda prevail?

While Henry Kissinger is winning some astounding diplomatic victories of a preliminary nature in the Middle East, a subtle but nonetheless powerful lobby is at work on impressionable Senators such as Edward Kennedy to make it impossible for the U.S. to sustain any credible posture in international affairs.

Larry Levin, a staff member of the Coalition to Stop Funding the War, recently made the claim that Congress' refusal to honor the Nixon Administration's request for more military aid to South Vietnam was due to the efforts of his organization, which is a sort of holding company for 30 religious and "peace" groups. Boastfully, Levin mentioned the pressure which local churches, unions and anti-war societies, working on Coalition direction from Washington, had brought to bear on 30 Denators who represented swing votes.

The war protesters of the late 1960s and the '70s no longer march or demonstrate; instead, for all the world like so many milk or oil or insurance company lobbyists, they pluck lapels on Capitol Hill. They get Tom Hayden, the founder of Students for a Democratic Society, and his sidekick, Jane Fonda, to conduct seminars for congressional aides, who pass the material up to legislators who wouldn't be caught dead talking directly to SDS types.

The lobbying works because it is in tune with the isolationist mood of the times. Nobody is organized on the other side to save a victory in Southeast Asia that was made possible when the Nixon-Kissinger diplomacy managed to couple U.S. troop withdrawals with a tacit promise from both Peking and Moscow not to take flagrant advantage of the situation.

The link between Southeast Asia and the Middle East is not immediately obvious. Nevertheless, Kissinger has made implied promises both to the Egyptians and the Israelis that will require a continuing flow of arms to armies not our own. Since the Soviets have made it plain that "detente" imposes no restrictions on their support of "liberation" movements in Third World or Middle Eastern countries, Kissinger must have the assurance that the U.S. can play a countering "short of war" politics if we are not to lose the world by default. Thus the need to keep South Vietnam from collapse becomes a psychological counter in our Middle East "short of war" strategy. If we were to let the Saigon government fall because of any failure to provide it with sufficient funds to keep its air force flying, the lesson would not be lost on diplomats in Cairo, Tel Aviv or, most of all, Moscow.

Congress is tired of the hole business in Southeast Asia. But Americans are no longer being killed there. If the Kissinger diplomacy is to be successful, it requires a continuing proof that the U.S. can match the Soviets and the Red Chinese in "short of war" maneuvering. The absence of such proof on any one strategic front will quickly be felt on all fronts. As Indochina goes, so will the Middle East go, or even Western Europe.

Maybe it's all going anyway. There is the possibility of cheap "liberationist" victories for the Communists in Portugal and Greece. This would make it impossible for the U.S. to have any credible Mediterranean strategy. And with the Communists on the move in Portugal's African dominions, the Indian Ocean itself would be untenable. The oil tap to the Persian Gulf would open and close at the enemy's discretion.

Kissinger is cheerful, but if our Senators are going to let Tom Hayden and Jane Fonda do their thinking for them, our diplomatic victories of the past six years will all go up in smoke.

Man makes profit from manure

By HENRY HEILBRUNN

Associated Press Writer

SOUTH CHARLESTON, Ohio (AP) —

Cattleman John Sawyer, who doesn't waste anything unnecessarily, turns manure into organic fertilizer for dollars.

"It's more profitable than feeding cattle," said Sawyer, who owns a major livestock feed lot in the state with a 20,000-head capacity.

"There is no profit in feeding cattle today. In fact, it's a disaster."

The production of "purified animal byproduct" from the waste of the cattle in his lot "helps our business."

"I don't think a large commercial feed lot would be successful without an economic way to handle manure," Sawyer said.

Sawyer's economic way grosses him between $2 and $3 dollars on the retail market for a 50-pound sack of the processed manure.

"It's primary use is as an organic soil conditioner or fertilizer. It doesn't differ much from manure at all, other than it's purified," he said.

He said he sells his byproduct, which he calls PAB, to a distributor who markets the two-year-old product along the East Coast, primarily for nursery, gardening and other small commercial users.

"We've not yet developed it for farm use. Most farms have their own manure supply," he said. "We anticipate that it may become more in demand on farms with the shortage of other fertilizers."

Nitrogen, a major component for soil conditioning, is in short supply. Farmers are also skimping on spreading commercial fertilizer because of the shortage. This may result in lower yields.

Before Sawyer and others at his Ohio Feed Lot, Inc., developed PAB, he grappled with the problem of cattle waste.

"Without a method of handling large volumes of manure, you would have pollution problems that would be severe," said Sawyer, who at the time limited his feed lot to half capacity to avoid the problem.

The manure he did have he distributed to area farms, he said.

To produce PAB, he collects the manure on a routine basis and processes it until it looks like dark, dry peat.

Sawyer, who also owns several thousand acres of corn, soybean and wheat crops and livestock in Central Ohio, already sees more possibilities for the manure.

"There's the possibility of using it as livestock feed. There is experimentation going on now."

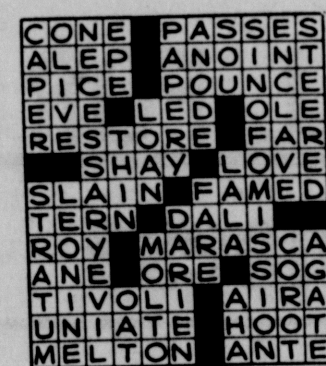

"All material is just a form of chemistry," which can be changed, Sawyer said.

Solomon and Aristotle both sang the praises of honey.

Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

If pregnant, marry now
—not in 4 months

DEAR ABBY: Bob (not his real name) and I have been engaged since last Christmas. The problem is I am pretty sure I am pregnant, and my wedding is four months away. I probably shouldn't wear a white gown and veil, but I already bought mine, and if I can get into it I'm going to wear it.

I haven't told anybody but Bob, but I may have to tell my mother because I feel lousy in the morning, and she wasn't born yesterday.

If I'm pregnant, would it be okay to go ahead with the church wedding like I planned? We would tell people afterwards that the baby was premature. Rush your answer to me.

SUE (NOT MY REAL NAME)

DEAR SUE: First, see a doctor. If you're pregnant, make the wedding simple and soon. And don't count on fooling any body who can count to nine.

DEAR ABBY: You are, once again, absolutely wrong. You recently advised a reader to fall for one of the oldest tricks in the book to pay for more gas than she asked for simply because the attendant "made a mistake" and put an extra dollar's worth in her tank.

True, occasionally an attendant does make a mistake, but he is in business, and if it's his mistake he should bear the loss.

Would you pay the telephone company for a long distance call you didn't make but was billed to your number?

By now you know I am a lawyer. I doubt if you will print this, but if you do please correct my spelling. I am too busy trying to persuade my clients that the legal advice they got from their barber, mechanic, plumber, garbageman, friend-who-had-a-similar problem and columnist is not really the law, not always entirely correct, and is very seldom complete and/or accurate.

UPSET

DEAR UPSET: C'mon. The principle involved in that "dollar's worth of gas" letter must have eluded you. The customer said she'd go back home to get another dollar and bring it back. She never returned. Then her child wrote to ask me what Mother should have done. I said "Since she promised to return with the dollar, she should have."

You're right. I wouldn't pay for a long distance call billed to me that I didn't make simply because that call is not a commodity I would eventually use. (Not so with the gas already in my tank.)

And if you write again, please include your name and address. I have more to say to you than I can fit into this column.

DEAR ABBY: About the wife who wrote that her husband was having an affair with a young teacher. (she was a minister's daughter he had met in church.) The wife asked you if she should tell the girl's father, and you told her not to.

Thanks for advising her not to tell Dad. I don't want her husband for keeps. I just want to borrow a little of what she doesn't want. (She says their marital relations are not enjoyable to her.)

I'll be leaving town soon. Maybe this experience will jolt that wife enough so she will at least try to love her husband. He certainly needs it.

It's positively stupid for any wife to leave her husband vulnerable to an affair when it's so easy to please a man.

DORA

DEAR DORA: Dumb, you're not!

TV Viewing

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — This is bite-the-bullet week for public TV stations. They're readying final decisions on which national shows they'll "buy" for next season under the Public Broadcasting Service's new national program cooperative plan.

In the plan, stations are asked to pay a fair-share percentage of the cost of certain programs they'd have gotten free in past years, when federal and foundation funds weren't as limited as now.

But PBS emphasizes that programs bought under the new system will represent only 40 to 50 per cent of PBS' 1974-75 schedule and that the stations will get the balance free as in previous years.

When the cooperative began operations last month, 93 program proposals that would cost nearly $42 million were on the auction block.

As a series of "elimination" rounds began last week, at least 49 program proposals, most of them new ones, were eliminated from the bidding because of insufficient station interest, PBS said.

PBS says to keep or get a show on the air nationally at least 80 per cent of the nation's 151 public TV licenses must be willing to pay for it. The show's cost to these stations can't be higher than the price they were quoted in the final elimination round.

If a proposal doesn't pass these two tests, there still is a way to get it on the air on a limited basis.

PBS says interested stations can form their own cooperative to help pay for the show, but it would cost them far more than if the minimum 80 per cent of the nation's public TV stations also were paying.

Stations participating in this minicooperative would be the only ones in the PBS system allowed to air the show.

During the first elimination round last week, at least six shows had met the 80 per cent criteria and now are considered safe for next season, PBS says.

Among them were such veterans as "Sesame Street" and "Wall Street Week," but there also were two newcomers — "Soundstage," a pop

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP) — Clarence "Buster" Crabbe, who portrayed "Tarzan" and "Flash Gordon" in acting roles, is reported in good condition at St. Vincent's Hospital with a virus.

A hospital spokesman said Friday night he was admitted earlier in the evening and probably would be released in a day or two.

Crabbe, 65, was in Bridgeport, Conn., on a promotional tour and became sick Thursday night.

The first fleet of motorized taxis in the United States made its debut in 1907.

Yes, Elizabeth, there is a cow in your garden

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Elizabeth Thinnies didn't believe her husband Howard when he said there was a cow in her garden.

"Howard is a great kiddier," she said. The couple lives near the Cincinnati Stock Yards.

Finally he dragged her to the window while slaughterhouse workers poured over the fence with police and shot the escaped steer in her rose garden. "I told them the least they could do was to send me some of the liver," Mrs.

Thinnies said, adding, "One thing's for sure, next time Howard tells me there's a cow in the garden, I'll believe him."

Easy and Economical

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

WHAT TWO THINGS are uppermost in the mind of the woman who cooks? Economy and convenience! Today's recipes qualify on both counts.

Everyone — and especially children — loves pizza. How can a main dish miss when it's festive, fun and all-time favorite:

MIGHTY PIZZA HERO

1 package (28½ ounces) complete cheese pizza)

½ pound ground beef
½ pound link sausage, thinly sliced
½ cup chopped onions
½ cup chopped green peppers
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons chopped pimento-stuffed green olives

1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped spinach, cooked, drained well
Preheat oven to 425 degrees F.

Prepare pizza dough according to package directions. Let set five minutes. Divide dough into three equal portions. On greased cookie sheets or pizza pans, pat out each portion of dough into an 8-inch circle. Spread ¾ cup pizza sauce from package over the three circles. Sprinkle grated parmesan cheese from package over each pizza circle. Bake at 425 degrees F. for ten minutes. Remove from oven and turn temperature dial to 375 degrees F.

Brown ground beef and sausage with onions, green pepper and salt. Cook until vegetables are tender but not wilted. Add olives; cook one minute longer. Drain meat mixture.

Spoon meat mixture over one cooked

pizza; spread to edge. Sprinkle mozzarella cheese over meat; top with another 8-inch pizza. Spoon spinach over pizza, spreading to edge. Invert the last pizza and place on top of the stack so that the bottom of the pizza is facing up. Cover with foil and bake for 25 to 30 minutes. Heat remaining sauce from package before serving and spoon over heated sandwich. Cut in wedges.

Serves 4 to 6.

This is a skillet dinner that's easy on the cook.

CHILI-BEAN SPAGHETTI

6 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons margarine
3 beef bouillon cubes
3 cups hot water

1 package (15 ounces) spaghetti dinner with meat sauce
1 can (15 ounces) kidney beans, washed and drained

1½ cups frozen green beans, partially thawed

1½ teaspoons chili powder
dash garlic powder

In 10-inch skillet, saute' onions in margarine until golden. Dissolve bouillon cubes in water; add to onions. Add canned spaghetti sauce; stir. Bring to moderate boil. Break spaghetti into 3-inch pieces; add to boiling sauce mixture. Cover; lower heat. Cook for ten minutes; stirring occasionally. Add kidney beans, green beans, chili powder and garlic powder. Cover; cook for additional 10 minutes. Sprinkle with canned cheese before serving.

Serves 4 to 6.

Three hurt in rural mishaps

Seven accidents in which two people were injured and taken to the hospital occurred in the county over the weekend, the Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported. Washington C.H. police officers investigated five accidents, in which three people were charged with traffic violation, but no one was injured.

SHERIFF

MONDAY—6:10 a.m.—A car driven by Gertrude Amelia Bennett, 62, Stafford Rd., went left of center while traveling north on U.S. 62, seven-tenths of a mile south of Staunton. Ms. Bennett pulled her car back into the proper lane, but went off the right side of the road, colliding with a fence owned by Mrs. Orville Bush, 912 S. Main St.

After running through the fence, the car continued 30 feet and then traveled through another section of fence. Ms. Bennett was charged with failure to drive on the right side of the road by sheriff's deputies.

SUNDAY 1:30 p.m.—A two-year-old

Greenfield boy fell from a car driven by Shelia Jo Howland, 23, Greenfield, while the Howland car was traveling north on Washington-New Martinsburg Road in Perry Township.

Bobby Lee Cottrell, was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital where he was treated for a lacerated forehead and released.

3:45 a.m.—A car driven by Freddie Howe, 22, of 424½ East St., struck a fence owned by Harold Streitenberger, 3926 Prairie Rd., when he lost control of his vehicle while traveling north on Prairie Road, nine-tenths of a mile east of the Bloomingburg-New Holland Road intersection.

Howe was charged by sheriff's deputies with reckless operation.

SATURDAY 4:30 p.m.—Kenneth Ray Hodge, 23, New Holland, was injured when his motorcycle slid on gravel at the Deer Creek Reservoir parking lot.

Hodge was treated at Fayette Memorial Hospital for abrasions of the right arm and leg and a lacerated right knee and then released.

4:20 p.m.—A car driven by Buddy Lee Bonsall, 25, Charleston, W. Va., was forced off the U.S. 35 bypass by an unidentified vehicle into a reflector post owned by the Ohio Department of Transportation.

Moderate damage was reported to Bonsall's car.

11:50 a.m.—A car driven by Dallas James Gilbert, 24, Leesburg, ran off U.S. 62 in Green Township after negotiating a right curve and struck a fence owned by Don V. Morris, Leesburg.

Gilbert claimed injury from the accident but was not treated.

FRIDAY 8:15 p.m.—An unidentified vehicle cut in front of a car driven by Wanda Louis Furniss, 32, of 119 Washington Manor Court, damaging her left front bumper at the intersection of the Seaway parking lot exit and the CCC-Highway-W. Moderate damage was done to the Furniss auto.

POLICE

SUNDAY 11 p.m.—A minor accident occurred in the Borden Burger parking lot Columbus Avenue, between cars driven by Barbara J. Warner, 21, of 517 Second St. and Kimberly K. Burr, 17, Greenfield.

8:30 p.m.—A car driven by Carolyn Sue Cox, 23, of 924 Pearl St., struck a parked car owned by Pearl S. Merriman, Milledgeville, in the city parking lot, off Oakland Avenue, near the ball park.

SATURDAY 11:59 a.m.—A rear-end collision occurred at the intersection of Court and Main Streets, between cars driven by Robert V. Glenn Jr., 19, Greenfield, and Shirley A. Moore, 21, of 3572 Maywood Court.

Damage was slight and Ms. Moore was charged with failure to maintain an assured clear distance.

4:15 p.m.—An accident occurred on Court Street when John D. Zugg, 19, Midland, opened the door of his parked car into oncoming traffic. The door was struck by a car driven by Harold D. Wilson, 45, Clarksburg.

Zugg was charged by police with opening a car door into traffic.

10:14 a.m.—A rear-end collision occurred between a van driven by Dale P. Haines, 41, of 729 Leesburg Ave. and a car driven by Kenneth R. Bullock, 17, Reynoldsburg, at the intersection of Clinton Avenue and Draper Street.

Damage was slight and no one was cited.

Deputies make 3 blood runs

The Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported three blood runs this weekend in which Fayette County Sheriff's deputies met Franklin County Sheriff's Deputies at the Franklin County line on I-71 in order to receive blood from the Columbus blood bank, intended for Fayette Memorial Hospital.

Sgt. John L. Emrick made a non-emergency blood run at 9:50 a.m. Sunday.

Deputy Dave Krupla transported blood at 5 p.m. Saturday, for Marcelene Lawell, a patient at Fayette Memorial Hospital and was also involved in another run at 10 a.m. Friday, in which he delivered four pints to the hospital.

Because the eyes of the owl are immovable, it must swivel its head to shift its line of sight.

Two countians attend Lutheran Church meeting

The 13th annual convention of the Ohio Synod of the Lutheran Church in America was held Thursday through Saturday at Heidelberg College, Tiffin. The First Lutheran Church of Tiffin performed many services for the convention body as the host church during the three days.

Rev. Harold R. Shank, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, and Ora C. Burdge, of New Holland, represented Good Shepherd Church in witnessing an "Energy Explosion" in the ministry of the Ohio church synod and its 345 member churches. The reports of the church functions were reviewed with much Christian discussion and climaxed by the approval of a budget of over $3 million for synod work in 1975.

Miss Jean Bozeman, a member of the executive council of the Lutheran Church in America, addressed the convention body on the task of researching the 3,280,000 members working through 6,092 congregations in 33 synods.

The highlight of the convention banquet was the address on "Ecumenical Relations" given by the Most Rev. James W. Malone, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Youngstown, and President of the Ohio Council of Churches.

Firemen answer 2 Sunday calls

A backfire through a carburetor and a burning post created two fires for Washington C. H. firemen Sunday.

The first fire occurred at 3:10 p.m. at the Rocky Martindill residence, 619 Leesburg Ave.

Martindill's car had backfired through the carburetor, but the fire was out upon the firemen's arrival.

Firemen estimated $50 damage to the car and reported there had been no air cleaner on the carburetor.

The second fire occurred at 11:51 p.m. on Oakland Avenue, in the swimming pool parking lot.

Firemen reported a parking lot wooden post had caught fire and they had doused it with water. Damage was estimated at $5 to the post.

It takes from 30 to 40 gallons of sap to make one gallon of maple syrup.

Post 25 sweeps pair from Greenfield

BY MARK REA
Record-Herald Sports Writer

Post 25, behind the pitching of Mark Johnson and Phil Roll and a heavy offensive attack, routed the Greenfield Legionnaires in a doubleheader Sunday afternoon by scores of 16-1 and 9-2.

Johnson hurled the opening game and went seven innings. He gave up one run on five hits, while walking five and striking out the same number in his first win of the season. Roll, who went the distance in the nightcap, gave up two runs on six hits. He walked seven and struck out eight in his initial win of the season.

In the first game, Washington C.H.

scored 13 runs in the first three innings and coasted to victory. Greenfield's Chris Nelson was tagged with the loss. Suppling the Post 25 offense were Johnson with a double, Pat McNaughton with two doubles, Alan Cappock, who had a mammoth triple to center, and Paul England with a towering shot over the left field fence for his first home run of the season. Steve Haines also stole four bases in the first game.

Johnson limited Greenfield to just five hits, four of which were singles. Chuck Cole doubled for the only extra-base hit for Greenfield. Joe Wisecup scored the lone run for Greenfield.

During the night guns roared again, pounding out 13 hits and rolling up an 8-0 lead in the third inning. Two singles, an error, a double by McNaughton, a walk and a sacrifice netted five runs for Court House in the third and again they rode the easy cushion to victory. Roll got the win for Post 25, while Steve Willett suffered the defeat.

Nelson doubled and scored a run, while Don Kauffing also scored for Greenfield in the second game. They were limited to just six hits in this contest, making it only 11 hit for the entire doubleheader.

McNaughton collected five runs batted in during the doubleheader,

Green captures Classic crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hubert Green admits that he is mentally tired—that the week-in, week-out grind of golf is getting to him.

After pocketing $30,000 for winning the $150,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic Sunday with a 17-under-par 271, Green talked more enthusiastically about a two-week vacation than this week's U.S. Open Championship at Winged Foot Country Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y.

"I haven't missed a tournament in months," said Green, who compiled rounds of 70-67-66-68 for his third tour victory of the year. "But the grind gets to you."

What about the Open, the most prestigious title in golf?

"I'd like to win it, but I enjoyed winning here," he said, waving toward the 6,708-yard Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course he had just wrecked. "I like to do well, and the way I've played the last few weeks is nothing to turn my face down about."

"I'll get in my car and drive to New York and play hard. If I get whipped, fine. I'm going to take two weeks off. I won't play again until the Milwaukee Open."

Green, 27, who previously this year won the Bob Hope Desert Classic and the Greater Jacksonville Open, boosted his 1974 earnings to $156,165, second only to top money-winner Johnny Miller.

Crowds inspire AL victories

By The Associated Press

When you're a winner, as the Oakland A's, the shrieking of the "enemy" crowd can sound like music. But when you're a loser, it can drive you bats.

And, so, ignoring the hollering of a "Jacket Day" throng of 46,812 in Milwaukee, the A's ran up a quick lead Sunday and held on to beat the Brewers 5-4.

In Detroit, though, a screaming "Bat Day" crowd of 42,491 shook up a pair of California outfielders and helped the Tigers to defeat the nosediving Angels 5-3.

In Sunday's other American League

games, the New York Yankees edged Minnesota 4-3, Texas trimmed Baltimore 3-2, Boston belted Chicago 10-6 and Cleveland beat Kansas City 8-6.

Deron Johnson, who hit a homer for Oakland, said the Brewers' crowd was "great. These are real baseball fans. It's just fun playing baseball in front of all these people. I like a big crowd. It makes you a little more keyed up."

Sal Bando slugged a two-run homer to go with Johnson's solo shot that enabled Oakland to build a 5-1 lead in the fifth inning. Pedro Garcia homered for Milwaukee.

Tigers 5, Angels 3
A three-run, noise-aided fourth inning against Nolan Ryan, capped by a monstrous double by Willie Horton, carried Detroit past California, which dropped its 10th game in the last 13.

With the score tied 2-2, Mickey Stanley started the Tigers' big rally with a double. Then the crowd took over. Gary Sutherland hit a liner to rightcenter field. Either center fielder

Mickey Rivers or Lee Stanton, coming over from right, could have caught it. But they couldn't hear each other calling for it. Afraid of colliding, they each pulled up short and the ball fell for a hit.

Yanks 4, Twins 3
Graig Nettles hit a sixth-inning homer for the Yanks, then capped a three-run ninth with a single that kept the Twins last in the West.

Rangers 3, Orioles 4
Jim Fregosi drove in two Texas runs, one of them with a tie-breaking homer in the eighth inning, to beat Baltimore.

Red Sox 10, White Sox 6
Bob Montgomery drove in three runs to pace the assault by the Red Sox, who cut loose for four runs in the first inning and five more in the sixth.

Indians 8, Royals 6
Oscar Gamble and Dave Duncan hit homers in Cleveland's victory over the Royals. Gamble's seventh of the season came in the fifth inning and Duncan's eighth came in the seventh inning after George Hendrick's double.

Top race drivers win weekend runs

By The Associated Press

For race driver Jody Scheckter, there's nothing like winning your first big one. And for Johnny Rutherford, two in a row is just a couple of car lengths short of heaven.

And Cale Yarborough? Well, he now stands at six for the season, is beginning to pad a healthy point lead in his bid for his first stock car racing championship, and is piling up a lot of cash along the way.

Scheckter, a 26-year-old extrovert from South Africa now in his first full season as a regular in the Grand Prix thoroughbreds, captured the Swedish Formula 1 race Sunday—his first.

Rutherford, a 36-year-old veteran from Fort Worth, Tex., made his Indianapolis 500 triumph look even better by holding off Gary Bettenhausen to win the Rex Mays 150 at Milwaukee.

Yarborough, 35, a businessman-politician from Timmonsville, S.C., beat Bobby Allison in a blazing finish in a 500-mile race for Grand National stockers at Riverside, Calif.

Scheckter finished the 80 laps in Sweden about four-tenths of a second ahead of Tyrrell teammate Patrick Depailler. James Hunt in a Hesketh-Ford was third.

Rutherford, who added $17,259 to the $245,031.52 he won at Indianapolis two weeks ago, barely edged Bettenhausen as rain almost shut the place down before the finish.

But when the checkered flag fell, it was Billy Vukovich in third place, Dick Simon in fourth and Al Unser in fifth.

Yarborough's margin over Allison at Riverside was an eyelash 2.5 seconds as the two Chevrolet drivers battled the final laps on the only road course the stockers see each year.

The stocky, blond Yarborough also won a 500-mile race at Riverside in January. He ran out of fuel on the last lap in that one, and he did it again Sunday.

Not only that, he also ran out of water in his cockpit cooler midway in the 400-mile race and was so dehydrated after the finish that he had to be revived with oxygen. He was able later to accept a check for $14,425, putting him past the $150,000 mark in 1974 winnings.

Despite the heat, Yarborough set a new 400-mile record for Riverside with an average speed of 102.422 miles per hour.

Fourth title captured by Colonial Stair

Colonial Stair won its fourth tournament of the season, as the squad captured the Bel-Dor Lite Tournament in Washington Court House with a 14-13 victory over Drake's.

Colonial Stair's one-run victory in the finals marked the fourth game in the tourney that the winners had been on the better side of a one-run ball game. Colonial opened the tournament by defeating Drake's 12-11 on Saturday. They followed with an 8-7 win over Superior Carpet of Wilmington and banded Wilson Motor Freight of South Charleston a 19-18 loss.

Drake's came back to stop Colonial Stair 16-3 in the semi-finals, so the two teams had to meet again in the finals. By defeating Drake's in the finals, Colonial Stair now holds a 30-9 record for the season.

Sid Woodrow and Keith Guthrie were the top hitters for the winners during the tournament. Woodrow batted .650 and Guthrie had a .600 batting average.

Reds crush Philadelphia

*PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson indicated Sunday's 14-7 victory over Philadelphia was like a circus.

"There was a whole bunch of guys out there who should have been across the street (in the circus which is in town)," Anderson said Sunday after his Reds manhandled the Philadelphia Phillies 14-7.

"It's getting a little frustrating when you keep running the battery down on that cart," said Phils Manager Danny Ozark, speaking of the vehicle that brings relief pitchers to and from the bull pen. Ozark lifted a tired Ron Schueler with a 4-3 lead in the sixth inning, and saw five relievers blasted for 11 hits and 11 runs—all but one earned.

Catcher Johnny Bench hit a two-run homer to start a seven-run seventh inning and the comedy of errors was on. Bench now has hit nine home runs in Veterans Stadium, which opened three years ago.

In addition to serving the Reds' 17 hits, the Phils committed three errors, made three wild pitches, walked nine and hit one batter.

Despite the crushing loss, the Phils retained a two-game lead over St. Louis and Montreal in the National League East.

Ozark acknowledged he was concerned about his bullpen, but said he wouldn't rush into making a deal. With the trading deadline several days away, the team also needs batting help to replace cleanup hitter Greg Luzinski, who'll be out at least 10 weeks because of a knee injury.

"You can't give away something and expect to get something decent in return," he said. "If we want to give up (Mike) Schmidt, we can get a good reliever. But we're not going to do that."

The Phils mounted a 15-hit attack of their own, led by four safeties each by Dave Cash and Schmidt, who like Mike Anderson hit a three-run homer. But the faulty bullpen was the difference.

After the game, Sparky Anderson insisted his current Reds are better than last year's Western Division champs, citing particularly the play of Dan Driessen and Cesar Geronimo. Driessen batted out four hits and delivered big RBI in two rallies, while Geronimo doubled in the Reds' first run, added two more singles, a walk and was hit by a pitch.

While the Reds have been on a streak, the front-running Dodgers have been, too. Despite winning 80 per cent of their games in the past few weeks, the Reds have gained only one game on Los Angeles.

Pirates 14, Giants 1
Willie Stargell belted two home runs—one his ninth career grand slam—and knocked in six runs, and Richie Zisk hit for the cycle and drove in five to lead Pittsburgh over San Francisco.

Astros 11, Mets 1
Tommy Helms and Doug Rader knocked in a pair of runs and Tom Griffin scattered eight New York hits, leading Houston past the Mets.

Dodgers 4, Cubs 3
Pinch-hitter Von Joshua drove in the winning run with a one-out single in the ninth, lifting Los Angeles over Chicago.

Padres 6, Cardinals 5
Bobby Tolan's three-run homer in the eighth inning propelled San Diego over St. Louis. Bob Barton walked and Dave Winfield singled before Tolan homered off Mike Garman.

Braves 3-3, Expos 2-7
Pitcher Phil Niekro scored one run and drove in another to lead Atlanta to a first-game victory over Montreal. Bob Bailey slugged a two-run single and Ron Fairly belted a solo home run to help Montreal win the second game.

Drugs and Baby Sitters

A 14-year-old patient casually mentioned to me that her 17-year-old sister was taking "uppers" and "downers." These are drugs designed to depress or stimulate the personality.

When I inquired how she obtained these drugs, the answer was "by baby-sitting."

My first reaction was that the income from baby-sitting supplied the money used to purchase the drugs. This was not so.

Baby-sitting jobs allowed her to rummage through the medicine cabinets and drawers of her employers in search of tranquilizers, sleeping pills, dexedrine and amphetamines. This was a shocking revelation. It underscores the importance of carefully screening all baby-sitters and making certain that drugs of any kind are kept in a safe place.

Tobacco production lag seen

FRENCH LICK, IND. (AP) — Tobacco production is not keeping pace with usage, President William D. Hobbs of the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., said here today.

Speaking to 28th annual convention of the Burley Auction Warehouse Association, Hobbs said use of burley during the last three growing seasons was more than 360 million pounds of burley above production.

"This is almost an entire crop," said Hobbs. "These figures are more than a little alarming to me and they should be to you, too."

"In the past manufacturers have been able to make up the difference between auction sales and usage from pool stocks."

He said the pool stocks have been "almost exhausted so we must rely on the farmer to meet our needs."

"The days ahead will be extremely important for every segment of the tobacco industry, be it farmer, warehouseman or manufacturer," Hobbs said. But he emphasized that he viewed the future with confidence.

4 survive plane crash

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Nicholas Joseph Carano, his two small sons and his mother made arrangements to drive back to Girard, Ohio, today after surviving the crash of their light plane Sunday.

Carano, manager of a grocery store, said his plane's engine conked out about 20 miles from Columbia, where he had planned to refuel.

His mother, Margaret Carano of Hubbard, Ohio, and his two sons, Nick, 7, and Michael, 5, were given emergency room treatment at a hospital and dismissed after a helicopter brought the four to Columbia.

Carano had picked out a farm field in a wooded area as the only available place to make his emergency landing. The plane had flipped over on the rough ground.

Carano said he and his family were headed from Youngstown to Orlando, Fla.

Gypsy moth traps set by Ohio agency

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Agriculture will start to set traps today for the gypsy moth, a devastating insect which feeds on trees in its caterpillar stage.

"Eight thousand traps will be distributed throughout Ohio by July 15th," said division chief Harold Porter. "The heaviest concentration of traps will be in those areas where the chance of artificial spread are high, such as campgrounds, parks and trailer courts."

The department said the largest threat to Ohio from the moths exist in neighboring Pennsylvania, where last year the moth defoliated one million acres of forest.

Larceny cases, burglary checked by law officers

A gasoline larceny and the theft of $40 from a soft drink machine were reported by the Fayette County Sheriff's Department. Washington C.H. police officers are investigating the burglary of a Millwood Avenue woman's house.

Gasoline was shipped from a car owned by Rodney Dale Kimball, 21, of 1426 Pearl St., while it was parked at his residence.

Sheriff's deputies reported the offense as taking place sometime between 10:15 Saturday and 6:15 p.m. Sunday.

Forty dollars in change was taken from the soft drink vending machine at the U.S. 35 and I-71 Shell station, sometime between 6 p.m. Thursday and 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Sheriff's deputies reported the machine had been opened with a key and are investigating the incident.

A plastic mustard container containing between $10 and $15 in change was taken from the Jean A. Tucker residence, 932 Millwood Ave., sometime between midnight and 5:30 a.m. Saturday, police reported.

Entry to the house was obtained by cutting the screen in the door and unhooking the latch. Police estimated $3 damage to the door.

Investigation is continuing.

The OCSEA said Friday the new pact includes a minimum of eight weekends off per year per member, a two-step grievance procedure with binding arbitration, four-hour minimum call-in pay and a better overtime equalization system.

TREE PLANTING—Members of the Fayette County Board of Commissioners plant a new tree on the Courthouse lawn as part of a project to replace dead trees which were removed recently. Board chairman J. Board's light agenda permits tree planting

The Fayette County Board Commissioners found time to plant a tree in the Courthouse lawn Monday morning due to the fact that they had a very light agenda.

They discussed routine matters, paid bills and received a report from Reginald (Chink) Davis, in which he stated that he had responded to 38

Critics call journey unnecessary

Nixon opens Mideast trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon flew off today on the first leg of a journey that will take him to five Middle East nations during the next week.

Nixon left the United States with the twin goals of strengthening the new U.S. role in the Middle East and convincing the American people that world peace requires his continuation in office.

After spending some time in Austria to adjust to the time zone changes, Nixon arrives in Egypt Wednesday for the first stop in what is expected to be a warmly welcomed tour of five Middle East nations.

Diplomats in the Middle East and Washington and many American officials see the trip as official confirmation that the United States is a friend of the Arabs—particularly true for Egypt and Syria, two nations that had been entirely dependent on the Soviet Union for military and political support.

Nixon's visits therefore are expected to give a further push to Moscow's declining influence in the Middle East.

While White House and State Department officials deny publicly any connection between the trip and Nixon's Watergate troubles, the President drew one Sunday between his continuation in office and the progress of his foreign policy.

While a luncheon audience of 1,400 members of the National Committee for Fairness to the Presidency cheered and chanted, Nixon counted up his diplomatic triumphs—friendship with mainland China, detente with Moscow.

But "there remains much to be done," he continued. And, he said at another point, "A strong American President is essential if we are to have peace in the world."

He said he will stay President through his term.

After Egypt, Nixon goes to Saudi

Arabia, Syria, Israel and Jordan. He returns June 19.

There was some criticism of the trip from congressional sources.

In East Lansing, Mich., Sen. Edward

Brooke, R-Mass., said the trip would serve no useful purpose and that it was "patently political." Nixon's effectiveness "has been impaired by Watergate," Brooks said.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said the trip did not make sense since "Dr. (Henry A.) Kissinger spent a little over a month in that area. He's just (Please turn to page 2)

Mexico now major source for heroin

WASHINGTON (AP) — After two years of decline, heroin traffic into the United States is reported on the upswing, with Mexico replacing Europe as the primary source and conduit for the narcotic.

Federal drug enforcement officials say the heroin is refined from poppy plants grown in western Mexico, then shipped into the U.S.

At the same time, there is growing trade in marijuana from long-established sources in Mexico, leading to an intensified antismuggling campaign along the 1,400-mile border.

But some officials acknowledge that U.S. government efforts to cope with the illicit activity have been partially impeded by bureaucratic wrangling among agencies with jurisdiction over certain aspects of narcotics control.

The Customs Service, which has concentrated its own border drug interdiction efforts chiefly against the Mexican marijuana trade, contends that heroin traffic from there is negligible. Although heroin remains priority No. 1 because of the danger it poses, customs officials said synthetic drugs are their biggest worry.

However, the Drug Enforcement Administration, a year-old Justice Department agency with which Customs has clashed frequently over enforcement policy, says Mexico has become the source of as much as 50 per cent of the heroin reaching the United States.

During the peak years of heroin traffic, 1969-72, up to 80 per cent of the narcotic reaching U.S. shores came from or through Europe. Only about 15 per cent from Mexico.

Mexican heroin is easily identified by its brown color; the more refined product from European laboratories is white. But officials say there is no difference in the potency.

John R. Bartels Jr., director of the drug agency, said brown heroin, once confined mostly to the West Coast, recently has been turning up in eastern cities—one indicator used to determine source.

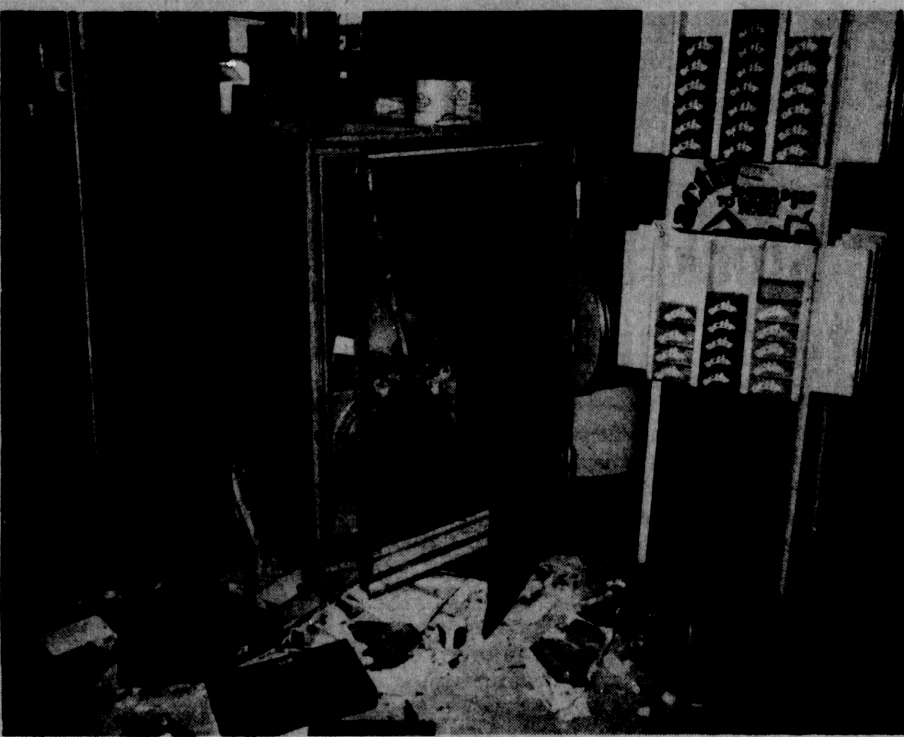

He says he is skeptical of most drug statistics reported by government agencies and admits he is "not happy" even with the figures compiled by his own. The heroin situation is assessed by such indicators as seizures, quality of the drug, street prices and the number of deaths from overdose.

The Customs Service, deprived of some of its functions when the drug agency was created in President Nixon's general overhaul of drug enforcement system a year ago, has doubled the number of individual marijuana seizures from Mexico in the past 10 months. Agents seized more than 85 tons of marijuana between October and March and 25 tons in the March-April period alone when the Mexican harvest was in full swing, official reports show.

In that time, Customs agents seized 8.33 pounds of heroin at all U.S. borders; 5.83 pounds came from Mexico.

The shift to Mexico as a major heroin source is due in part to the success of federal authorities in breaking up established connections from Europe, the Middle East and Asia, officials say.

Bartels says that while the international heroin traffic always has been controlled by the Mafia, the Mexican connection only now is showing signs that "these guys are now starting to get organized," he said.

SAFE PEELED — Burglars entered Clark's Cardinal Market, 747 W. Elm St. sometime overnight and made off with an undetermined amount of money from the store safe. Entry was made by knocking a hole in the concrete block store wall on the southwest side. Bureau of Criminal Investigation agents were assisting police in the investigation.

Over $2,000 taken from grocery safe

An overnight burglary at Clark's Cardinal Market, 747 W. Elm St., netted the thieves $2,084 in cash and approximately $1,600 worth of cigarettes, city police reported.

Police Specialist Larry Walker said entry was made by knocking a 16 x 24 inch hole in the concrete block wall on the southwest side of the building. The safe, located between the manager's office and a checkout counter, was then forced open.

Walker said the burglary, which was discovered by Dale Stevens, meat department manager, appeared to be a professional job.

The burglary occurred sometime between 6:30 p.m. Sunday and 6:30 a.m. Monday.

Agents from the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, London, were assisting city police officers in the investigation.

New tapes deadline ignored

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon refused again today to honor any more House impeachment inquiry subpoenas, writing to House Judiciary Committee chairman Peter W. Rodino

Jr. that he will do nothing which would "render the executive branch henceforth and forevermore subservient to the legislative branch."

Nixon's six-page letter to Rodino was in response to the Judiciary Committee's subpoena for tapes of 45 conversations related to the Watergate scandal. The letter was released by the White House.

The committee voted 37 to 1 on May 29 to subpoena the tapes, even though Nixon had already refused to comply with an earlier subpoena from the committee and had said he would reject any further subpoenas for material related to Watergate.

Nixon declared again today that "the voluminous body of materials that the committee already has ... does give the full story of Watergate insofar as it relates to presidential knowledge and presidential decisions."

Nixon said that "if the institution of an impeachment inquiry against the President were permitted to override all restraints of separation of powers, this would spell the end of the doctrine of separation of power; it would be an open invitation to future Congresses to use an impeachment inquiry, however frivolously as a device to assert their own supremacy over the executive, and to reduce executive confidentiality to a nullity."

U. S. District Judge John J. Sirica was to begin hearing pretrial motions today for seven men accused in the Watergate cover-up case, including motions for a change of venue. One defendant is former White House aide Charles W. Colson, who pleaded guilty last week to obstruction of justice in the burglary of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist's office.

And the Supreme Court could decide today whether to release a grand jury report that names Nixon an indicted co-conspirator in connection with the cover-up.

In still another federal courtroom, U.S. District Judge Gerhard Gesell was expected to decide this week, possibly today, what to do about Nixon's refusal to allow John D. Ehrlichman and his lawyers total access to certain White House files in the plumbers case.

The Judiciary Committee subpoena is its fourth sent to Nixon. It got edited transcripts instead of tapes in response to the first one, and nothing for the next two, which called for more tapes and some White House logs.

The committee has sent Nixon a letter saying his refusal to comply with its subpoenas was a grave matter that might be grounds in itself for impeachment.

Nixon was scheduled to leave for a visit to the Middle East a few hours before the subpoena was due. His lawyer, James D. St. Clair, said he would be in daily communication with the President during his absence.

The committee may issue another subpoena at its next business meeting, possibly Thursday, for taped conversations relating to the settlement of an International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. antitrust suit, and to a 1971 increase in milk price supports. The committee asked for 66 tapes but got only one partial transcript.

The committee also is ready to subpoena an Internal Revenue Service audit of Nixon's income taxes and supporting data that St. Clair said more than a week ago he would provide but hasn't.

Presentation of evidence gathered by the impeachment inquiry staff continues Tuesday with examination of the Ellsberg break-in by the special White House investigating unit known as the plumbers.

The committee's evidentiary hearings are expected to conclude June 19 or 20. Still to be presented is evidence bearing on use of federal agencies for partisan political purposes, Nixon's personal finances and the firing of special prosecutor Archibald Cox.

SPOT LANDING CHAMP — Millard French, of South Solon, is shown receiving the first place trophy from Mrs. John Woodmansee. He won the spot landing competition by beating Mr. Woodmansee, at left, after the two had tied on their first attempt. Jack Sanders, Fayette County Pilots Association President, was the master of ceremonies as the association hosted its annual Fly-In Sunday.

Over 100 spectators attend fly-in event

More than 100 spectators turned out at the Fayette County Airport Sunday when some 25 pilots arrived for the annual Fly-In.

Trophies were awarded to the winners of competitive events as well as for the youngest, oldest and farthest-flying pilots. Mrs. John Woodmansee awarded the trophies while Jack Sanders, pilots association president, served as master of ceremonies.

The airport was under the jurisdiction of the Fayette County Pilots Association for the day, thus relieving the county of all responsibility during the event. Attorney Otis Hess negotiated the legal aspects of the transfer.

Sandwiches and food were provided for the spectators, and the proceeds will be placed in the Pilots Association Airport Improvement Fund.

THE COMPETITIVE events were spot-landing and bomb-dropping. The spot-landing event was won by Millard French, of South Solon, after he won a tie-breaking match with John Woodmansee, airport manager. Hess finished third, just three feet further from the target landing stripe than French or Woodmansee.

Norman Merritt and James Patton combined to place first in the bomb-dropping competition. Second was the team of Hess and Paul Wisecup, of Chillicothe.

Carl Giles, 21, of Columbus, was the youngest pilot in attendance. The oldest pilot arriving here was Leon Ostrander, 58, of Circleville.

There was a tie for the pilot who had flown the greatest distance to attend. A number of the pilots had flown from the Brown County Airport, located on the Ohio River.

A number of community organizations assisted in the fly-in activities. The Civil Air Patrol directed cars to the parking areas; the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home provided chairs; the Fayette County Fair Board donated tables, and Boylan and Cannon Electronics provided the public address system.

The U.S. Air Force provided two jets which passed over the field about 10:15 a.m. The jets made one slow pass so that the planes could be viewed by the audience and then made another pass with the jets at full throttle.

National Health plan delay seen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's little chance Congress will approve a national health insurance plan this year, the president of the American Osteopathic Association said here today.

Dr. John C. Taylor of Kansas City told a meeting of the Ohio Osteopathic Association said there are just too many proposals before Congress, each of which must be examined carefully, to make a choice likely this year.

Katharine Cornell, stage star, dies

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass. (AP) — For decades, audiences applauded the dazzling performances of Katharine Cornell. "Romeo and Juliet" and "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" were among her triumphs.

The American National Theater and Academy recently cited her "incomparable acting ability and her theatrical genius" and said she had "elevated the theater throughout the world."

Miss Cornell became ill May 29 at her town house in New York City and was flown to Martha's Vineyard at her request. On Sunday, the actress who had brought so much excitement to the theater died of pneumonia at her home here. She was 81. Her body will be cremated in Boston on Tuesday and a memorial service will be held next week in Vineyard Haven's town hall.

Miss Cornell was born Feb. 16, 1893 in Germany. She was raised in Buffalo, N.Y., and made her first professional appearance there in 1918 as a member of a stock company.

She married Guthrie McClintic, who directed all of her plays but one. With her portrayal of Iris Marsh in Michael Arlen's "The Green Hat" in 1925, Miss Cornell became a star.

In 1931 when she formed her own production company.

With "Katharine Cornell Presents"

on theater signs, she staged "The Barretts of Wimpole Street"—a romantic success that she revived five times on stage and once in a rare television performance.

Triumphs followed in "Candida," "Romeo and Juliet" and "Saint Joan."

Miss Cornell initiated theater decentralization with a 20,853-mile repertory tour.

During World War II, Miss Cornell took "Barretts" to servicemen abroad and was awarded a 5th Army plaque for outstanding service.

After McClintic died in 1961, she retired from the stage.

In appraisal today of her career, AP Drama Critic William Glover wrote: "Among her peers, a mighty galaxy, she was recognized as a remarkable quintessence of special talent, restless in comedy, but uniquely able to enthrall in drama with a combination of vocal nuance and sinuous grace."

Critic Brooks Atkinson said in today's New York Times:

"Something electric happened when she stepped on a stage. She was born to be an actress ... If she had a great reputation it was not because she had manufactured it. It was because—in addition to that personal magnetism—she had the integrity and taste of a lady."

General Assembly seeks to wrap up major legislation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 110th General Assembly is to convene Tuesday in what leaders hope will be a two-day session to wrap up major legislation—primarily Gov. John J. Gilligan's $43.5 million supplemental appropriations measure.

House Speaker A.G. Lancione, D-99 Bellaire, said he doesn't expect many other major pieces of legislation to make it through by Wednesday.

"That doesn't mean they are dead," Lancione said. "We'll keep everything alive through December when we adjourn sine die (final)."

Gilligan's supplemental appropriations measure will have to be ironed out as compromise between Democrats who control the House and Republicans who are in charge in the Senate.

The Senate Finance Committee added some $40 million in tax relief to the measure, making it as it now stands an $83 million spending proposal.

Gilligan said the bill as it came out of the House was based on revenues from the state lottery the next fiscal year. The Republican additions are based on a predicted surplus which Gilligan contends does not exist.

Both houses of the legislature are to meet in floor session at 11 a.m. Tuesday. The Senate Finance Committee also meets Tuesday to hear Democratic amendments to its version of supplemental appropriations.

Other bills caught in the time deadline include a measure defining landlord-tenant legal relationships, a bill to provide additional low income housing and another for nofault insurance.

Yet another measure, one defining obscenity, failed to make it out of the House Rules Committee by one vote last week, and its prime sponsor, Rep. Donna Pope, R-12 Parma, thinks it is dead for this year.

"We'll do everything possible to move it," said Mrs. Pope, "but I see no way we can get through the House floor, a Senate committee and a Senate floor vote this time around."

She held out hopes, however, that if there is enough pressure it could come up later in the year.

After adjournment, both houses plan at least once a month skeleton sessions to keep things alive. Lancione said any pending bill—plus a reaction to any gubernatorial vetoes—could be acted upon at those times.

Final adjournment is tentatively set for Dec. 10, but Lancione and other legislative leaders agree that the session for all practical purposes will be over when the legislature adjourns this week.

Security heavy for Nixon trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — As President Nixon jets across the Atlantic today, U.S. Secret Service agents and host country security men are being deployed in unprecedented numbers throughout the Middle East.

According to several sources, never have so many men—upwards of 10,000—been assigned to protect a President.

Publicly, officials in Washington and the Middle East disclaim excessive concern for Nixon's safety.

"Security does not worry us," said Syria's protocol director, Khali Saadawi.

"Security as always will be dealt with," said White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler.

But privately, some security officials express deep concern about the President's safety in a region scarred by violence and terrorist attacks for a quarter-century. The extensive security preparations underscore their concern.

The Secret Service has called agents from field offices across the country to beef up the agency's White House detail, a spokesman said. He would not discuss numbers, but it is believed that more than 100 agents—perhaps as many as 250—are involved in guarding the President during his trip.

But the size of the U.S. security team

is dwarfed by host country forces. In Syria, for example, about 2,000 plainclothesmen were deployed for security during Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's repeated trips to Damascus in troop disengagement negotiations.

Syrian officials acknowledge that this force will be more than doubled for President Nixon, by 3,000 crack paratroopers.

Jordan's King Hussein has been the target of past assassination attempts, and there will be "tightening everywhere" for Nixon's visit, according to one unofficial source.

The head of the White House Secret Service detail, Dick Kaiser, has been in the Middle East for a week, conferring with the host countries in arranging security.

The time frame for security planning is much shorter than on previous presidential trips overseas. Usually, advance teams are sent out two to three weeks ahead. On this trip, they went one week ahead.

Nixon's bulletproof limousines are being flown to the Middle East. Helicopters from the presidential fleet also are heading there aboard giant cargo planes.

Agents talk privately of the risks involved in Nixon or Kissinger mingling in crowds.

They also worry about security in the moments immediately after the presidential jetliner takes off, since some terrorist groups are said to possess small, heat-seeking missiles capable of bringing down a lowflying aircraft.

Agents are being assigned around-the-clock to guard presidential aircraft and the luggage of the President's party.

Special precautions also are being applied to newsmen traveling with the chief executive in a pair of chartered jetliners, and their luggage.

Dam repair method set

WOLFE CREEK DAM, Ky. (AP) — The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has made a decision on the method of repairing the Wolfe Creek Dam, a 24 year-old concrete and earthen dam that created Lake Cumberland.

The work to stop leaks in the foundation will take nearly five years and will cost an estimated $64 million.

The corps says the remedy will be to pour a massive two-foot-thick curtain of concrete into at least half of the earthen portion, according to E.C. Moore, chief of the engineering division of the corps' Nashville District.

The cost could jump to more than the original $80 million spent to build it, depending upon whether or not further investigation reveals the curtain of concrete should be extended further.

Agnew vs. World Book

The view that every man must do what he can to defend his good name may strike some as applying to Spiro T. Agnew's complaints about the World Book story of his fall from grace. The point would not be well taken. The former vice president does not just now have a good name to defend. He will be unable to redeem himself in the eyes of his countrymen for a long time, if ever. Agnew would nevertheless be entitled to object were the account of his resignation distorted and unfair, as he claims. Judging by quotations this does not appear to be the case. He would have been better advised to take the World Book account in stride.

THESE DAYS . . . by John Chamberlain

Will Kissinger or Fonda prevail?

While Henry Kissinger is winning some astounding diplomatic victories of a preliminary nature in the Middle East, a subtle but nonetheless powerful lobby is at work on impressionable Senators such as Edward Kennedy to make it impossible for the U.S. to sustain any credible posture in international affairs.

Larry Levin, a staff member of the Coalition to Stop Funding the War, recently made the claim that Congress' refusal to honor the Nixon Administration's request for more military aid to South Vietnam was due to the efforts of his organization, which is a sort of holding company for 30 religious and "peace" groups. Boastfully, Levin mentioned the pressure which local churches, unions and anti-war societies, working on Coalition direction from Washington, had brought to bear on 30 Denators who represented swing votes.

The war protesters of the late 1960s and the '70s no longer march or demonstrate; instead, for all the world like so many milk or oil or insurance company lobbyists, they pluck lapels on Capitol Hill. They get Tom Hayden, the founder of Students for a Democratic Society, and his sidekick, Jane Fonda, to conduct seminars for congressional aides, who pass the material up to legislators who wouldn't be caught dead talking directly to SDS types.

The lobbying works because it is in tune with the isolationist mood of the times. Nobody is organized on the other side to save a victory in Southeast Asia that was made possible when the Nixon-Kissinger diplomacy managed to couple U.S. troop withdrawals with a tacit promise from both Peking and Moscow not to take flagrant advantage of the situation.

The link between Southeast Asia and the Middle East is not immediately obvious. Nevertheless, Kissinger has made implied promises both to the Egyptians and the Israelis that will require a continuing flow of arms to armies not our own. Since the Soviets have made it plain that "detente" imposes no restrictions on their support of "liberation" movements in Third World or Middle Eastern countries, Kissinger must have the assurance that the U.S. can play a countering "short of war" politics if we are not to lose the world by default. Thus the need to keep South Vietnam from collapse becomes a psychological counter in our Middle East "short of war" strategy. If we were to let the Saigon government fall because of any failure to provide it with sufficient funds to keep its air force flying, the lesson would not be lost on diplomats in Cairo, Tel Aviv or, most of all, Moscow.

Congress is tired of the hole business in Southeast Asia. But Americans are no longer being killed there. If the Kissinger diplomacy is to be successful, it requires a continuing proof that the U.S. can match the Soviets and the Red Chinese in "short of war" maneuvering. The absence of such proof on any one strategic front will quickly be felt on all fronts. As Indochina goes, so will the Middle East go, or even Western Europe.

Maybe it's all going anyway. There is the possibility of cheap "liberationist" victories for the Communists in Portugal and Greece. This would make it impossible for the U.S. to have any credible Mediterranean strategy. And with the Communists on the move in Portugal's African dominions, the Indian Ocean itself would be untenable. The oil tap to the Persian Gulf would open and close at the enemy's discretion.

Kissinger is cheerful, but if our Senators are going to let Tom Hayden and Jane Fonda do their thinking for them, our diplomatic victories of the past six years will all go up in smoke.

Bauxite costs to skyrocket

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — In a move expected to increase the price of all aluminum products, Jamaica has quadrupled the money it charges foreign companies to mine bauxite, aluminum's raw material.

Sensors in this Caribbean island nation, the world's largest bauxite-producing country, approved the higher charges on Friday. The House of Representatives passed them Tuesday and they will take effect after the formality of an approval by the governor general.

Most of Jamaica's bauxite is mined by six foreign companies: Aluminum Co. of America, Alcan Aluminum Ltd. of Canada, Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical, Reynolds Metals and Alpart — a consortium of Anaconda Co., Kaiser and Reynolds.

Penny shortage reported easing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's get-out-the penny drive to ease a shortage of the copper coin seems to be heading for success, Mint Director Mary T. Brooks says.

The first full week of the campaign showed signs that people are beginning to return to circulation some of the estimated 30 billion pennies they have squirreled away in jars and dresser drawers, Mrs. Brooks reported Friday. She said she had no specific figures on the penny recirculation but said a survey of chain stores showed that the situation is improving.

Ohio Perspective

Man makes profit from manure

By HENRY HEILBRUNN

Associated Press Writer

SOUTH CHARLESTON, Ohio (AP)

— Cattleman John Sawyer, who doesn't waste anything unnecessarily, turns manure into organic fertilizer for dollars.

"It's more profitable than feeding cattle," said Sawyer, who owns a major livestock feed lot in the state with a 20,000-head capacity.

"There is no profit in feeding cattle today. In fact, it's a disaster." The production of "purified animal byproduct" from the waste of the cattle in his lot "helps our business."

"I don't think a large commercial feed lot would be successful without an economic way to handle manure," Sawyer said.

Sawyer's economic way grosses him between $2 and $3 dollars on the retail market for a 50-pound sack of the processed manure.

"It's primary use is as an organic soil conditioner or fertilizer. It doesn't differ much from manure at all, other than it's purified," he said.

He said he sells his byproduct, which he calls PAB, to a distributor who markets the two-year-old product along the East Coast, primarily for nursery, gardening and other small commercial users.

"We've not yet developed it for farm use. Most farms have their own manure supply," he said. "We anticipate that it may become more in demand on farms with the shortage of other fertilizers."

Nitrogen, a major component for soil conditioning, is in short supply. Farmers are also skimping on spreading commercial fertilizer because of the shortage. This may result in lower yields.

Before Sawyer and others at his Ohio Feed Lot, Inc., developed PAB, he grappled with the problem of cattle waste.

"Without a method of handling large volumes of manure, you would have pollution problems that would be severe," said Sawyer, who at the time limited his feed lot to half capacity to avoid the problem.

The manure he did have he distributed to area farms, he said.

To produce PAB, he collects the manure on a routine basis and processes it until it looks like dark, dry peat.

Sawyer, who also owns several thousand acres of corn, soybean and wheat crops and livestock in Central Ohio, already sees more possibilities for the manure.

"There's the possibility of using it as livestock feed. There is experimentation going on now."

"All material is just a form of chemistry," which can be changed, Sawyer said.

Solomon and Aristotle both sang the praises of honey.

Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

If pregnant, marry now

—not in 4 months

DEAR ABBY: Bob (not his real name) and I have been engaged since last Christmas. The problem is I am pretty sure I am pregnant, and my wedding is four months away. I probably shouldn't wear a white gown and veil, but I already bought mine, and if I can get into it I'm going to wear it.

I haven't told anybody but Bob, but I may have to tell my mother because I feel lousy in the morning, and she wasn't born yesterday.

If I'm pregnant, would it be okay to go ahead with the church wedding like I planned? We would tell people afterwards that the baby was premature. Rush your answer to me.

SUE (NOT MY REAL NAME)

DEAR SUE: First, see a doctor. If you're pregnant, make the wedding simple and soon. And don't count on fooling any body who can count to nine.

DEAR ABBY: You are, once again, absolutely wrong. You recently advised a reader to fall for one of the oldest tricks in the book-to pay for more gas than she asked for simply because the attendant "made a mistake" and put an extra dollar's worth in her tank.

True, occasionally an attendant does make a mistake, but he is in business, and if it's his mistake he should bear the loss.

Would you pay the telephone company for a long distance call you didn't make but was billed to your number?

By now you know I am a lawyer. I doubt if you will print this, but if you do please correct my spelling. I am too busy trying to persuade my clients that the legal advice they got from their barber, mechanic, plumber, garbageman, friend-who-had-a-similar problem and columnist is not really the law, not always entirely correct, and is very seldom complete and/or accurate.

UPSET

DEAR UPSET: C'mon. The principle involved in that "dollar's worth of gas" letter must have eluded you. The customer said she'd go back home to get another dollar and bring it back. She never returned. Then her child wrote to ask me what Mother should have done. I said "Since she promised to return with the dollar, she should have."

You're right. I wouldn't pay for a long distance call billed to me that I didn't make simply because that call is not a commodity I would eventually use. (Not so with the gas already in my tank.)

And if you write again, please include your name and address. I have more to say to you than I can fit into this column.

DEAR ABBY: About the wife who wrote that her husband was having an affair with a young teacher. (She was a minister's daughter he had met in church.) The wife asked you if she should tell the girl's father, and you told her not to.

Thanks for advising her not to tell Dad. I don't want her husband for keeps. I just want to borrow a little of what she doesn't want. (She says their marital relations are not enjoyable to her.)

I'll be leaving town soon. Maybe this experience will jolt that wife enough so she will at least try to love her husband. He certainly needs it.

It's positively stupid for any wife to leave her husband vulnerable to an affair when it's so easy to please a man.

DORA

DEAR DORA: Dumb, you're not!

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, June 10, the 161st day of 1974. There are 204 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1610, the first Dutch settlers in America landed on Manhattan Island.

On this date— In 1776, the Continental Congress in Philadelphia named a committee to draft the Declaration of Independence.

In 1898, U.S. Marines invaded Cuba in the Spanish-American War.

In 1940, Italy declared war on France and Britain.

In 1942, the Nazi Gestapo killed the 173 male residents of Lidice, Czechoslovakia, to retaliate for the assassination of a German official.

In 1945, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower received the Soviet Union's highest award, the Order of Victory.

In 1967, Israel agreed to a United Nations cease-fire in its six-day war with Egypt.

Ten years ago: The U.S. Senate invoked closure, ending a 75-day Southern filibuster against a broad civil rights bill.

Five years ago: The Pentagon canceled an Air Force project to put a manned laboratory into orbit around the earth.

One year ago: Fighting in South Vietnam gained momentum as each side jockeyed for more territory under a ceasefire agreement.

Today's birthdays: Prince Philip of Britain is 53. Former astronaut James McDivitt is 45. Tennis star Arthur Ashe is 31.

Thought for today: Wit is the salt of conversation, not the food — William Hazlitt, English essayist, 1778-1830.

It was the nickels and dimes of children that paid for the 89-foot-high pedestal for the Statue of Liberty in 1886.

Yes, Elizabeth, there is a cow in your garden

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Elizabeth Thinnies didn't believe her husband Howard when he said there was a cow in her garden. "Howard is a great kiddie," she said. The couple lives near the Cincinnati Stock Yards. Finally he dragged her to the window while slaughterhouse workers poured over the fence with police and shot the escaped steer in her rose garden. "I told them the least they could do was to send me some of the liver," Mrs.

Thinnies said, adding, "One thing's for sure, next time Howard tells me there's a cow in the garden, I'll believe him."

General seeks rate increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The General Telephone Co. of Ohio has asked for an immediate rate increase for about 320,000 customers in 70 counties. The firm asked the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio on Friday to approve $9.2 million of a pending $13.5 million rate hike request.

AP Television Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — This is bite-the-bullet week for public TV stations. They're readying final decisions on which national shows they'll "buy" for next season under the Public Broadcasting Service's new national program cooperative plan.

In the plan, stations are asked to pay a fair-share percentage of the cost of certain programs they'd have gotten free in past years, when federal and foundation funds weren't as limited as now.

But PBS emphasizes that programs bought under the new system will represent only 40 to 50 per cent of PBS' 1974-75 schedule and that the stations will get the balance free as in previous years.

When the cooperative began operations last month, 93 program proposals that would cost nearly $42 million were on the auction block.

As a series of "elimination" rounds began last week, at least 49 program proposals, most of them new ones, were eliminated from the bidding because of insufficient station interest, PBS said.

PBS says to keep or get a show on the air nationally at least 80 per cent of the nation's 151 public TV licenses must be willing to pay for it. The show's cost to these stations can't be higher than the price they were quoted in the final elimination round.

If a proposal doesn't pass these two tests, there still is a way to get it on the air on a limited basis.

PBS says interested stations can form their own cooperative to help pay for the show, but it would cost them far more than if the minimum 80 per cent of the nation's public TV stations also were paying.

Stations participating in this minicooperative would be the only ones in the PBS system allowed to air the show.

During the first elimination round last week, at least six shows had met the 80 per cent criteria and now are considered safe for next season, PBS says.

Among them were such veterans as "Sesame Street" and "Wall Street Week," but there also were two newcomers — "Soundstage," a pop

Easy and Economical

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

WHAT TWO THINGS are uppermost in the mind of the woman who cooks? Economy and convenience! Today's recipes qualify on both counts.

Everyone — and especially children — loves pizza. How can a main dish miss when it's festive, fun and all-time favorite:

MIGHTY PIZZA HERO

1 package (28 1/2 ounces) complete cheese pizza)

1/2 pound ground beef

1/2 pound link sausage, thinly sliced

1/2 cup chopped onions

1/2 cup chopped green peppers

1 teaspoon salt

2 tablespoons chopped pimento-stuffed green olives

1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped spinach, cooked, drained well

Preheat oven to 425 degrees F.

Prepare pizza dough according to package directions. Let set five minutes. Divide dough into three equal portions. On greased cookie sheets or pizza pans, pat out each portion of dough into an 8-inch circle. Spread 1/3 cup pizza sauce from package over the three circles. Sprinkle grated parmesan cheese from package over each pizza circle. Bake at 425 degrees F. for ten minutes. Remove from oven and turn temperature dial to 375 degrees F.

Brown ground beef and sausage with onions, green pepper and salt. Cook until vegetables are tender but not wilted. Add olives; cook one minute longer. Drain meat mixture.

Spoon meat mixture over one cooked

pizza; spread to edge. Sprinkle mozzarella cheese over meat; top with another 8-inch pizza. Spoon spinach over pizza, spreading to edge. Invert the last pizza and place on top of the stack so that the bottom of the pizza is facing up. Cover with foil and bake for 25 to 30 minutes. Heat remaining sauce from package before serving and spoon over heated sandwich. Cut in wedges. Serves 4 to 6.

This is a skillet dinner that's easy on the cook.

CHILI-BEAN SPAGHETTI

6 tablespoons chopped onion

2 tablespoons margarine

3 beef bouillon cubes

3 cups hot water

1 package (15 ounces) spaghetti dinner with meat sauce

1 can (15 ounces) kidney beans, washed and drained

1 1/2 cups frozen green beans, partially thawed

1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder

dash garlic powder

In 10-inch skillet, saute' onions in margarine until golden. Dissolve bouillon cubes in water; add to onions. Add canned spaghetti sauce; stir. Bring to moderate boil. Break spaghetti into 3-inch pieces; add to boiling sauce mixture. Cover; lower heat. Cook for ten minutes; stirring occasionally. Add kidney beans, green beans, chili powder and garlic powder. Cover; cook for additional 10 minutes. Sprinkle with canned cheese before serving. Serves 4 to 6.

Coffee hour precedes Circle I meet

Mrs. Albert Bryant and Mrs. Lawrence Moss were co-hostesses at the coffee hour preceding the meeting of Circle 1 of First Presbyterian Church, held Thursday afternoon, at the church. There were 16 present.

Medical mission envelopes were given to all present and Mrs. James Wilson gave the 'Mission Interpretation' report. Mrs. Rollo Marchant read from the Yearbook of Prayer. Mrs. Hubert Furneau told of how some of the 'least coin' offering is used.

'Thy Kingdom Come', taken from the Concern magazine, was presented by Mrs. Kenneth Bush.

Zugg was charged by police with opening a car door into traffic.

10:14 a.m.—A rear-end collision occurred between a van driven by Dale P. Haines, 41, of 729 Leesburg Ave. and a car driven by Kenneth R. Bullock, 17, Reynoldsburg, at the intersection of Clinton Avenue and Draper Street.

Deputies make 3 blood runs

The Fayette County Sheriff's Department reported three blood runs this weekend in which Fayette County Sheriff's deputies met Franklin County Sheriff's Deputies at the Franklin County line on I-71 in order to receive blood from the Columbus blood bank, intended for Fayette Memorial Hospital.

Sgt. John L. Emrick made a non-emergency blood run at 9:50 a.m. Sunday.

Deputy Dave Krupla transported blood at 5 p.m. Saturday, for Marcelene Lawell, a patient at Fayette Memorial Hospital and was also involved in another run at 10 a.m. Friday, in which he delivered four pints to the hospital.

Two countians attend Lutheran Church meeting

The 13th annual convention of the Ohio Synod of the Lutheran Church in America was held Thursday through Saturday at Heidelberg College, Tiffin. The First Lutheran Church of Tiffin performed many services for the convention body as the host church during the three days.

Rev. Harold E. Shank, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, and Ora C. Burdge, of New Holland, represented Good Shepherd Church in witnessing an "Energy Explosion" in the ministry of the Ohio church synod and its 345 member churches. The reports of the church functions were reviewed with much Christian discussion and climaxed by the approval of a budget of over $3 million for synod work in 1975.

Miss Jean Bozeman, a member of the executive council of the Lutheran Church in America, addressed the convention body on the task of researching the 3,280,000 members working through 6,092 congregations in 33 synods.

The highlight of the convention banquet was the address on "Ecumenical Relations" given by the Most Rev. James W. Malone, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Youngstown, and President of the Ohio Council of Churches.

Firemen answer 2 Sunday calls

A backfire through a carburetor and a burning post created two fires for Washington C. H. firemen Sunday.

The first fire occurred at 3:10 p.m. at the Rocky Martindill residence, 619 Leesburg Ave.

Martindill's car had backfired through the carburetor, but the fire was out upon the firemen's arrival.

Firemen estimated $50 damage to the car and reported there had been no air cleaner on the carburetor.

The second fire occurred at 11:51 p.m. on Oakland Avenue, in the swimming pool parking lot.

Firemen reported a parking lot wooden post had caught fire and they had doused it with water. Damage was estimated at $5 to the post.

It takes from 30 to 40 gallons of sap to make one gallon of maple syrup.

Post 25 sweeps pair from Greenfield

BY MARK REA
Record-Herald Sports Writer
Post 25, behind the pitching of Mark Johnson and Phil Roll and a heavy offensive attack, routed the Greenfield Legionnaires in a doubleheader Sunday afternoon by scores of 16-1 and 9-2.

Johnson hurled the opening game and went seven innings. He gave up one run on five hits, while walking five and striking out the same number in his first win of the season. Roll, who went the distance in the nightcap, gave up two runs on six hits. He walked seven and struck out eight in his initial win of the season.

In the first game, Washington C.H.

scored 13 runs in the first three innings and coasted in to victory. Greenfield's Chris Nelson was tagged with the loss. Suppling the Post 25 offense were Johnson with a double, Pat McNaughton with two doubles, Alan Cappock, who had a mammoth triple to center, and Paul England with a towering shot over the left field fence for his first home run of the season. Steve Haines also stole four bases in the first game.

Johnson limited Greenfield to just five hits, four of which were singles. Chuck Cole doubled for the only extra-base hit for Greenfield. Joe Wisecup scored the lone run for Greenfield.

During the night guns roared again, pounding out 13 hits and rolling up an 8-0 lead in the third inning. Two singles, an error, a double by McNaughton, a walk and a sacrifice netted five runs for Court House in the third and again they rode the easy cushion to victory. Roll got the win for Post 25, while Steve Willett suffered the defeat.

Nelson doubled and scored a run, while Don Kauffing also scored for Greenfield in the second game. They were limited to just six hits in this contest, making it only 11 hit for the entire doubleheader.

McNaughton collected five runs batted in during the doubleheader, while Haines swiped a total of seven bases in the two contests. Post 25, as a team, stole 19 bases in the two games, while allowing no Greenfield runners to advance on steals. Haines also crossed home plate four times for Washington during the two games.

Green captures Classic crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hubert Green admits that he is mentally tired—that the week-in, week-out grind of golf is getting to him.

After pocketing $30,000 for winning the $150,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic Sunday with a 17-under-par 271, Green talked more enthusiastically about a two-week vacation than this week's U.S. Open Championship at Winged Foot Country Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y.

"I haven't missed a tournament in months," said Green, who compiled rounds of 70-67-66-68 for his third tour victory of the year. "But the grind gets to you."

What about the Open, the most prestigious title in golf?

"I'd like to win it, but I enjoyed winning here," he said, waving toward the 6,708-yard Whitmarsh Valley Country Club course he had just wrecked. "I like to do well, and the way I've played the last few weeks is nothing to turn my face down about."

"I'll get in my car and drive to New York and play hard. If I get whipped, fine. I'm going to take two weeks off. I won't play again until the Milwaukee Open."

Green, 27, who previously this year won the Bob Hope Desert Classic and the Greater Jacksonville Open, boosted his 1974 earnings to $156,165, second only to top money-winner Johnny Miller.

Crowds inspire AL victories

By The Associated Press

When you're a winner, as the Oakland A's, the shrieking of the "enemy" crowd can sound like music. But when you're a loser, it can drive you bats.

And, so, ignoring the hollering of a "Jacket Day" throng of 46,812 in Milwaukee, the A's ran up a quick lead Sunday and held on to beat the Brewers 5-4.

In Detroit, though, a screaming "Bat Day" crowd of 42,491 shook up a pair of California outfielders and helped the Tigers to defeat the nosediving Angels 5-3.

In Sunday's other American League

games, the New York Yankees edged Minnesota 4-3, Texas trimmed Baltimore 3-2, Boston belted Chicago 10-6 and Cleveland beat Kansas City 8-6.

Deron Johnson, who hit a homer for Oakland, said the Brewers' crowd was "great. These are real baseball fans. It's just fun playing baseball in front of all these people. I like a big crowd. It makes you a little more keyed up."

Sal Bando slugged a two-run homer to go with Johnson's solo shot that enabled Oakland to build a 5-1 lead in the fifth inning. Pedro Garcia homered for Milwaukee.

Tigers 5, Angels 3
A three-run, noise-aided fourth inning against Nolan Ryan, capped by a monstrous double by Willie Horton, carried Detroit past California, which dropped its 10th game in the last 13.

With the score tied 2-2, Mickey Stanley started the Tigers' big rally with a double. Then the crowd took over. Gary Sutherland hit a liner to rightcenter field. Either center fielder

Mickey Rivers or Lee Stanton, coming over from right, could have caught it. But they couldn't hear each other calling for it. Afraid of colliding, they each pulled up short and the ball fell for a hit.

Yanks 4, Twins 3
Graig Nettles hit a sixth-inning homer for the Yanks, then capped a three-run ninth with a single that kept the Twins last in the West.

Rangers 3, Orioles 4
Jim Fregosi drove in two Texas runs, one of them with a tie-breaking homer in the eighth inning, to beat Baltimore. Red Sox 10, White Sox 6

Bob Montgomery drove in three runs to pace the assault by the Red Sox, who cut loose for four runs in the first inning and five more in the sixth.

Indians 8, Royals 6
Oscar Gamble and Dave Duncan hit homers in Cleveland's victory over the Royals. Gamble's seventh of the season came in the fifth inning and Duncan's eighth came in the seventh inning after George Hendrick's double.

Top race drivers win weekend runs

By The Associated Press

For race driver Jody Scheckter, there's nothing like winning your first big one. And for Johnny Rutherford, two in a row is just a couple of car lengths short of heaven.

And Cale Yarborough? Well, he now stands at six for the season, is beginning to pad a healthy point lead in his bid for his first stock car racing championship, and is piling up a lot of cash along the way.

Scheckter, a 26-year-old extrovert from South Africa now in his first full season as a regular in the Grand Prix thoroughbreds, captured the Swedish Formula 1 race Sunday—his first.

Rutherford, a 36-year-old veteran from Fort Worth, Tex., made his Indianapolis 500 triumph look even better by holding off Gary Bettenhausen to win the Rex Mays 150 at Milwaukee.

Yarborough, 35, a businessman-politician from Timmonsville, S.C., beat Bobby Allison in a blazing finish in a 500-mile race for Grand National stockers at Riverside, Calif.

Scheckter finished the 80 laps in Sweden about four-tenths of a second ahead of Tyrrell teammate Patrick Depailler. James Hunt in a Hesketh-Ford was third.

Rutherford, who added $17,259 to the $245,031.52 he won at Indianapolis two weeks ago, barely edged Bettenhausen as rain almost shut the place down before the finish.

But when the checkered flag fell, it was Billy Vukovich in third place, Dick Simon in fourth and Al Unser in fifth.

Yarborough's margin over Allison at Riverside was an eyelash 2.5 seconds as the two Chevrolet drivers battled the final laps on the only road course the stockers see each year.

The stocky, blond Yarborough also won a 500-mile race at Riverside in January. He ran out of fuel on the last lap in that one, and he did it again Sunday.

Not only that, he also ran out of water in his cockpit cooler midway in the 400-mile race and was so dehydrated after the finish that he had to be revived with oxygen. He was able later to accept a check for $14,425, putting him past the $150,000 mark in 1974 winnings.

Despite the heat, Yarborough set a new 400-mile record for Riverside with an average speed of 102.422 miles per hour.

Fourth title captured by Colonial Stair

Colonial Stair won its fourth tournament of the season, as the squad captured the Bel-Dor Lite Tournament in Washington Court House with a 14-13 victory over Drake's.

Colonial Stair's one-run victory in the finals marked the fourth game in the tourney that the winners had been on the better side of a one-run ball game. Colonial opened the tournament by defeating Drake's 12-11 on Saturday. They followed with an 8-7 win over Superior Carpet of Wilmington and banded Wilson Motor Freight of South Charleston a 19-18 loss.

Drake's came back to stop Colonial Stair 16-13 in the semi-finals, so the two teams had to meet again in the finals. By defeating Drake's in the finals, Colonial Stair now holds a 30-9 record for the season.

Sid Woodrow and Keith Guthrie were the top hitters for the winners during the tournament. Woodrow batted .650 and Guthrie had a .600 batting average.

Phillies create comedy of errors

Reds crush Philadelphia

*PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson indicated Sunday's 14-7 victory over Philadelphia was like a circus.

"There was a whole bunch of guys out there who should have been across the street (in the circus which is in town)," Anderson said Sunday after his Reds manhandled the Philadelphia Phillies 14-7.

"It's getting a little frustrating when you keep running the battery down on that cart," said Phils Manager Danny Ozark, speaking of the vehicle that brings relief pitchers to and from the bull pen. Ozark lifted a tired Ron Schueler with a 4-3 lead in the sixth inning, and saw five relievers blasted for 11 hits and 11 runs—all but one earned.

Catcher Johnny Bench hit a two-run homer to start a seven-run seventh inning and the comedy of errors was on. Bench now has hit nine home runs in Veterans Stadium, which opened three years ago.

In addition to serving the Reds' 17 hits, the Phils committed three errors, made three wild pitches, walked nine and hit one batter.

Despite the crushing loss, the Phils retained a two-game lead over St. Louis and Montreal in the National League East.

Ozark acknowledged he was concerned about his bullpen, but said he wouldn't rush into making a deal. With the trading deadline several days away, the team also needs batting help to replace cleanup hitter Greg Luzinski, who'll be out at least 10 weeks because of a knee injury.

"You can't give away something and expect to get something decent in return," he said. "If we want to give up (Mike) Schmidt, we can get a good reliever. But we're not going to do that."

The Phils mounted a 15-hit attack of their own, led by four safeties each by Dave Cash and Schmidt, who like Mike Anderson hit a three-run homer. But the faulty bullpen was the difference.

After the game, Sparky Anderson insisted his current Reds are better than last year's Western Division champs, citing particularly the play of Dan Driessen and Cesar Geronimo. Driessen banged out four hits and delivered big RBI in two rallies, while Geronimo doubled in the Reds' first run, added two more singles, a walk and was hit by a pitch.

While the Reds have been on a streak, the front-running Dodgers have been, too. Despite winning 80 per cent of their games in the past few weeks, the Reds have gained only one game on Los Angeles.

Pirates 14, Giants 1
Willie Stargell belted two home runs—one his ninth career grand slam—and knocked in six runs, and Richie Zisk hit for the cycle and drove in five to lead Pittsburgh over San Francisco.

Astros 11, Mets 1
Tommy Helms and Doug Rader knocked in a pair of runs and Tom Griffin scattered eight New York hits, leading Houston past the Mets.

Dodgers 4, Cubs 3
Pinch-hitter Von Joshua drove in the winning run with a one-out single in the ninth, lifting Los Angeles over Chicago.

Padres 6, Cardinals 5
Bobby Tolan's three-run homer in the eighth inning propelled San Diego over St. Louis. Bob Barton walked and Dave Winfield singled before Tolan homered off Mike Garman.

Braves 3-3, Expos 2-7
Pitcher Phil Niekro scored one run and drove in another to lead Atlanta to a first-game victory over Montreal. Bob Bailey slugged a two-run single and Ron Fairly belted a solo home run to help Montreal win the second game.

Opening lead - jack of spades.

The top players seldom make sensational bids or plays, relying more on unerring accuracy than sledge-hammer tactics to overpower their opponents.

But once in a while they step out of character and do something extra-fancy that turns out well and brings down the house. Here is such a case.

The deal occurred in a match between Argentina and Venezuela for the South American championship. The Argentine declarer got to three notrump and West (Benaim) led a spade. Declarer won in dummy with the ace and led a diamond to the jack, on which Benaim played the nine!

It is hard to blame South for assuming that East had the queen. So, after cashing the A-K of clubs and discarding a spade, declarer played another diamond, this time finessing the ten. Much to his disappointment, West won with the queen, producing the following position:

North
 ♥ 9 7 6

South

 ♥ Q 8 2
 ♦ A K 8 4

When West cashed the queen of clubs, South had to let go of a diamond, and when Benaim then played the ten of spades, South could do no better than cash three diamonds to go down one.

Perhaps declarer should somehow or other have seen through West's scheme, but Benaim nevertheless deserves full marks for conceiving the plan that sent South to his doom.

Speaking of Your Health...

Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Drugs and Baby Sitters

A 14-year-old patient casually mentioned to me that her 17-year-old sister was taking "uppers" and "downers." These are drugs designed to depress or stimulate the personality.

When I inquired how she obtained these drugs, the answer was "by baby-sitting."

My first reaction was that the income from baby-sitting supplied the money used to purchase the drugs. This was not so.

Baby-sitting jobs allowed her to rummage through the medicine cabinets and drawers of her employers in search of tranquilizers, sleeping pills, dexedrine and amphetamines.

This was a shocking revelation. It underscores the importance of carefully screening all baby-sitters and making certain that drugs of any kind are kept in a safe place.

Year in and year out sun-worshippers are warned against acquiring an attractive suntan too quickly.

Despite all warnings, the painful, blistering after-effects of overexposure to sunlight still occur. These burns can be severe and incapacitating.

Many happy holidays are ruined because of a failure to remember the rules of tanning.

Creams and lotions do offer protection, but they can create a false sense of security about the intensity of the sun's rays.

Precautions must be taken when the sun is reflected off the sand or the sea.

Watch out, too, for burns on a hazy day.

Because of unreasoning fears, some people delay a visit to a doctor's office because they "do not want to hear the truth."

Their fear keeps them from coming face to face with their real and, more often, imagined problems.

It is distressing to witness the destructive force of anxiety as it grows—nurtured by such immature behavior.

Far too many people manipulate their entire lives around diseases that do not actually exist.

In France, each royal court had different fragrances in perfume as well as different scents for each day of the week in some of the courts.

Tobacco production lag seen

FRENCH LICK, IND. (AP) — Tobacco production is not keeping pace with usage, President William D. Hobbs of the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., said here today.

Speaking to 28th annual convention of the Burley Auction Warehouse Association, Hobbs said use of burley during the last three growing seasons was more than 360 million pounds of burley above production.

"This is almost an entire crop," said Hobbs. "These figures are more than a little alarming to me and they should be to you, too."

"In the past manufacturers have been able to make up the difference between auction sales and usage from pool stocks."

He said the pool stocks have been "almost exhausted so we must rely on the farmer to meet our needs."

"The days ahead will be extremely important for every segment of the tobacco industry, be it farmer, warehouseman or manufacturer," Hobbs said. But he emphasized that he viewed the future with confidence.

4 survive plane crash

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Nicholas Joseph Carano, his two small sons and his mother made arrangements to drive back to Girard, Ohio, today after surviving the crash of their light plane Sunday.

Carano, manager of a grocery store, said his plane's engine conked out about 20 miles from Columbia, where he had planned to refuel.

His mother, Margaret Carano of Hubbard, Ohio; and his two sons, Nick, 7, and Michael, 5, were given emergency room treatment at a hospital and dismissed after a helicopter brought the four to Columbia.

Carano had picked out a farm field in a wooded area as the only available place to make his emergency landing. The plane had flipped over on the rough ground.

Carano said he and his family were headed from Youngstown to Orlando, Fla.

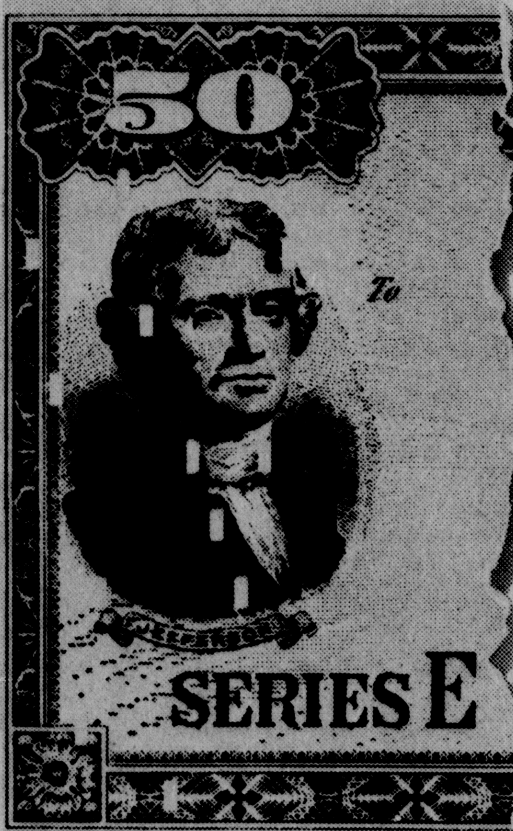

Gypsy moth traps set by Ohio agency

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Agriculture will start to set traps today for the gypsy moth, a devastating insect which feeds on trees in its caterpillar stage.

"Eight thousand traps will be distributed throughout Ohio by July 15th," said division chief Harold Porter. "The heaviest concentration of traps will be in those areas where the chance of artificial spread are high, such as campgrounds, parks and trailer courts."

The department said the largest threat to Ohio from the moths exist in neighboring Pennsylvania, where last year the moth defoliated one million acres of forest.
